BOTH CLAIM VICTORY.

Watson-Johnson Congressional Contest Ends Tomorrow.

Is Waging With Intense Bitterness--A New Move on the Indiana Apportionment.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 31.—The contest between Congressmen Johnson and Watson in the Sixth district has assumed proportions that have rarely been attained in a contest for office in Indiana. The Watson men are confident and very aggressive and are claiming Henry county, which will decide by primary vote tomorrow, by a heavy majority, while the Johnson men are claiming it by from 200 to 300 votes.

At the little town of Cadiz the Christian church was thrown open to Johnson last week and he spoke from the pulpit. When Watson asked for a similar favor it was denied him. The Methodists at once threw their church open to him, and now the two flocks are at war with each other. Watson is a Methodist, and it is claimed by his friends that the Christian church was refused him because of his faith.

Women are electioneering and are seen upon the street day and night arguing for their favorite. Owing to the intense feeling some of the merchants have lost their best customers and boycotts have been started and are being actively carried on by the Johnson men against Watson's friends who are in business and by the Watson men against Johnson.

The final rally of the campaign took place to day an New Castle, and Johnson and Watson are both present and made speeches from different platforms and in different parts of the city. Excursion trains were run from all parts of the district. There is much uneasiness on account of the excited conditions that prevail and many of the leading republicans fear trouble.

The democrats of Hammond held their city convention last night and ratified the ward nominations made Saturday evening and also nominated Robert Gregory as a candidate for city judge.

NEW MOVE ON APPORTIONMENT.

Lewis Wallace, jr., has filed an intervening petition in the case of William Denny and others against the state, on relation of Fred Boslet, decided by the supreme court sixty days ago with the result that the apportionment acts of 1891 and 1895 were declared unconstitutional. The petition avers that the recent decision related to only isolated statutes and not to the whole cause, which he now wishes to present. He pleads that that decision establishes a precedent whereby the Hamilton county court, in the apportionment suit now pending, must declare all apportionment acts unconstitutional and that the prospects point to the nonexistence of a legislature, which will be in violation of the state's compact with the United States.

Mr. Wallace asks the supreme court to decide which law is valid, so that the legislature may be chosen thereby. He pleads that the reception of his petition will end all litigation relative to the apportionment, much to the advantage of the electors of the state. The petitioner also sets out at length what are alleged to be faults in the ruling of the supreme court. He avers that he has no interest either in the prosecution or defense of the suit now pending in Hamilton county or elsewhere, and that he is acting independently and in his capacity as an elector, without relation to any particular interest.

The petition has occasioned surprise in political circles. The democrats believe that Wallace's petition is presented to forstall action on the motion to dismiss the case.

Missionaries Not Molested.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 31.—In consequence of the urgent representations of the British embassador, Sir Philip Currie, and the United States charge d'affairs, Mr. John W. Riddley, the Porte has furnished written assurances that the missionaries in Anatolia will not be molested in the work of distributing relief, on condition that an Ottoman official is permitted to assist in the distribution of the funds, etc.

SITUATION DARKER.

The Matabele Outbreak Assumes a Serious Aspect.

The Whole Country About Buluwayo is in a State of Open Insurrection.

CAPE TOWN, March 31.—It is difficult to obtain accurate information regarding the progress of the rebellion of the natives of Matabelland. The authorities naturally are withholding all the information possible, as there is no doubt that it would be made use of by the enemies of British rule in South Africa. It is not denied, however, that the situation becomes darker every day and that a very strong force of men will be necessary to restore order.

The whole of the country outside of a radius of about twelve miles around Buluwayo is in a state of open insurrection and the Matabeles and natives are flocking to the Matopo hills, where the son of the late King Lobengula is said to have been raised to his father's rank with much ceremony, preparatory to taking command of the army of insurgent natives flocking to the hills from all parts.

The general opinion expressed here is that the charter companies and the British home government greatly underestimate the serious state of affairs which prevails here. This seems to be especially the case with the British goverment and it would seem that the latter must be intentionally or unintentionally mislead by the chartered company's officials or by others.

PASTORS RETURNED.

Dr. H. W. Bennett, Rev. C. C. Cissell and Rev. Paschall.

Changes Made at Trinity and St. Paul M. E. Churches---Close of the Conference.

RICHMOND, Ind., March 31.—The north Indiana conference of the Methodist Episcopal church won the hearts of the ladies yesterday in a wholesouled manner. The question of admitting women to the general conference, both from the lay and ministerial conferences, came up, and the conference voted in favor of the proposition unanimously. The question was not even discussed, so much agreed were all the members on the question. The conference also voted in favor of an amendment by which the general conference shall not allow more than one ministerial representative for every fourteen members of an annual conference, nor a less number than one for sixty-five. The purpose of this is to reduce the membership of the general conference.

The cabinet, which has been in session during the conference, made the announcement of the assignment of ministers to their charges for the ensuing year today. These are usually made on Monday morning, but the work of the conference was somewhat delayed this year and they were not made until today. The appointments of interest to Fort Wayne are as follows:

Presiding Elder of Fort Wayne District—Rev. T. T. Simpson.

Pastor, Wayne Street Church—Rev. Dr. H. W. Bennett.

Pastor, Berry Street Church—Rev. C. C. Cissell.

Pastor, Simpson Church—Rev. J. W. Paschall.

Pastor, Trinity Church—Rev. E. F. Alberson.

Pastor, St. Paul Church—Rev. M. C. Cooper.

The selection of Rev. Simpson, Dr. Bennett, Rev. Cissell and Rev. Paschall are reappointments to the positions they have been filling. Rev. Cooper was at Fort Wayne a few years ago, but has been since filling an appointment in Illinois. He is a young minister of ability.

Rev. H. M. Johnson, formerly of the Trinity church at Fort Wayne, is sent to Fairmont, and Rev. J. M. Stewart, formerly of St. Paul, is sent to Markle.

Dr. Driver is returned to Marion, Dr. Eldridge to Anderson, and Rev. Lamport goes to Goshen.

Kokomo was selected as the place for holding the next session of the conference. The name of Fort Wayne was not presented as a contestant. There were but two places presented—Kokomo and Hartford City—and a rising vote showed 88 for Kokomo and 86 for Hartford City.

The resolutions against popular amusements were quite stringent and opposed the general conference abolishing the blacklist, which contains the names of those violating the rules of the church along the line.

An attempt was made to get through a memorial to the general conference to change the ritual of the church so as not to express baptismal regeneration, in which the denomination does not believe; also to change the expression, "holy catholic church." After a heated discussion the memorial was killed, being considered to radical in its scope.

The report from the American Bible society showed that in the sixty years it has existed it has printed and largely circulated more than 61,000,000 copies of the Bible. They are sold at cost, and given to those not able to buy. These Bibles are printed in 242 languages.

The following trustees of De Pauw university were elected: Rev. C. C. Hudson, Elkhart; Hugh Dougherty, Bluffton; Rev. M. H. Mendenhall, Union City, and J. T. Elliot, Logansport. The plan of the American university, at Washington City, was approved.

The committee on freedmen's aid and southern education reported that the society now has forty-five institutions of learning, twenty-two of them devoted to the Christian education of the American negro, of whom 4 854 were in attendance the past two years; twenty-two of the schools are for poor white people of the south, of whom 2,278 were in attendance the same year. These institutions are sending out converted young men and women.

The society owns $2,600,000 worth of real estate, and has sole charge of the religious education of 547 000 communicants living in the territory covered by thirty-five conferences. Marvelous results have been obtained. This conference appropriated $2 982 to assist the work.

Distribution of Seeds.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Secretary Morton has let the contract for the 10,125,000 packets of vegetable seeds to be distributed to the public, under the recent act of congress, to D. Landreth & Sons, of Philadelphia. The price fixed is $70,000, the seeds to be delivered, subject to germinative test under a very carefully drawn contract, free of cost to the department in Washington, ready for mailing. The contract for a million packets of flower seeds was let to L. L. May & Co., of St. Paul, Minn., at half a cent per package.

CUBANS GARROTTED.

A Sickening Spectacle in the Streets of Havana.

Five Men Put to Death in the Most Bungling and Horrible Manner.

HAVANA, March 31.—Never in modern times has there been a more sickening spectacle than that which today attended the public execution of five Cubans. The men had been condemned to death by the garrotte as "murderers, violaters and incendiaries." Troops were drawn up in a hollow square, and in the middle were placed the chair and post. Ruiz, the public executioner, had deputized an assistant to conduct the affair. The condemned men, having received the offices of the church, were brought into the square to meet their fate. One of them had confessed his guilt and affirmed the innocence of all the others, who also protested that they were guiltless.

The first man to die took his seat in the chair calmly; the iron collar was fixed about his neck and the cap drawn over his face. Then the executioner undertook to apply the screw, but was so excited that his hand slipped repeatedly with the result that the victim died by slow strangulation, emitting the most distressing cries. The second execution was accomplished with even more distressing awkardness and delay, the executioner being almost on the verge of colispse as he performed his horrible function. The protests of the officers and priests forced Ruiz to undertake the third execution, but he did little better than his assistant had done.

The fourth victim of the bungling garrotters was likewise tortured and then Ruiz literally fled from his post, leaving his assistants to put to death the fifth of the unfortunate Cubans, who escaped none of the agonizing experiences that had attended the execution of his fellows. The whole affair has left upon those who witnessed it and upon those to whom it has been described a feeling of the utmost horror.

REED OR M'KINLEY.

Either Good Enough for New Hampshire.

Republicans of That State Adopt a Platform Favoring a High and Protective Tariff Policy.

CONCORD, N. H., March 31.—New Hampshire republicans held their state convention here today and elected delegates to the national convention at St. Louis. United States Senator William E. Chandler presided. Senator Chandler was greeted enthusiastically.

Senator Chandler's speech was given close attention and was frequently interrupted by applause. His mention of Thomas B. Reed as the nation's choice aroused great enthusiasm. Of the 700 entitled to seats in the convention 679 were present. But one ticket for delegates at-large was presented and that bore the names of Hon. Stephen S. Jewitt, of Lacross; General Frank S. Streeter, of Concord; Hon. Chas. T. Means, of Manchester, and Col. Jas. A. Wood, of Ackworth. These four candidates for delegates at large were elected by acclamation.

The platform favors a protective tariff based on the principles of the McKinley act, and the enactment of currency laws that will provide a circulating medium, in gold, silver and paper, which will always be interchangeable at its face value because of the equality and every dollar of it is of the same purchasing power as a gold dollar. In reference to choice for presidential candidate the platform says: "We recognize as most conspicuous among such candidates, New England's noble and illustrious son, the Hon. Thos. B. Reed, of Maine, and that pure and able statesman and champion of protection, the Hon. Wm. McKinley, of Ohio. We will give the electoral vote of New Hampshire to any nominee who worthily represents the party, but we prefer one of these because either is in himself a platform."

There was a slight stir in the even current of the proceedings when Col. Frank W. Rollins, of Concord, offered a substitute financial plank, identical with that adopted by the Massachusetts convention last week, as an amendment to the resolutions, but Chairman Putney, Senator Gallinger and others opposed the proposition and the amendment was lost by an overwhelming viva voce vote. The adoption of the platform as presented by the committee was made unanimous. Adjournment followed the adoption of the platform.

SETTLED AT LAST.

The New Base Ball League is a Sure Go.

Manager Meyer Receives Assurances That Everything is Ready Now For Going Ahead.

The question of whether or not Fort Wayne is to have base ball this season seems at last to have been settled, and we are to have ball—ball that will be ball.

As stated in THE SENTINEL a meeting is to be held in Toledo tomorrow for the purpose of organizing a league to be composed of Fort Wayne, Toledo, Jackson, Saginaw, Wheeling, Youngstown, New Castle and Washington. This morning Manager Billy Meyer received a telegram from C. B. Power, of Pittsburg, who was president of the Inter-State league, which went to pieces, which said:

"There will be a meeting at Hotel Madison, Toledo, tomorrow. Jackson and Saginaw are O. K."

"This means," said Mr. Meyer, to a SENTINEL reporter this morning, "that every thing is settled. We will go to Toledo tomorrow and stay there until the whole thing is completed and the schedule of games made out."

This league will be one of the strongest minor leagues in the country. All are good base ball towns and they will all put in good teams. This will mean base ball of the very best kind.

GAS EXPLOSION.

Louis Kanning's Face and Head Badly Burned.

Something Got Wrong With His Furnace and He Tried to Investigate.

Louis Kanning was badly burned yesterday by a natural gas explosion at the Kunkle safety valve works, on Barr street.

Kanning was heating a pattern in a gas fire. He left it for a short time and when he returned he found the pattern as cold as when he left it. He opened the door of the furnace to see what was wrong with the fire. As he opened the door there was a puff of fire and the flames struck him full in the face. His face, head and neck were badly scorched. His eyes were not injured.

LOCAL LINES

Theodore Walda, the well known carpenter, cut himself severely on the hand with a saw yesterday while at work.

The Spinsters' Fortnightly club will meet for rehearsal at the city Y. M. C. A. at 7:15. All members requested to be present.

There will be a meeting of special interest to all the members of Plymouth church in the church lecture room tomorrow evening.

The members of the North Side Pedro club surprised Mr. Chas. Archer on Saturday evening, to celebrate the anniversary of his birth.

Daniel Gordon, who was operated upon at St. Joseph hospital, will get well. He is cheerful, suffers no pain and has an excellent appetite.

W. H. Noyes, Lake Shore ticket agent in this city, arrived from Albion, Mich., with his bride yesterday, and they are at home for the present at No. 15 Cass street.

John Becquette has occepted a position with C. M. Lamley, of 38 Harrison street. Mr. Becquette has been employed for a number of years at the well known firm of Falk & Lamley, the wholesale liquor dealers.

The following building permits have been issued by the board of public works: William F. Snyder, two-story frame house, lot 47, Hoffman's addition, $600; John Wehrs, addition to house, lot 86, Beck's addition, $500.

The following persons who were here to attend the funeral of the late Martin Schramm have returned to their homes: Frank Schramm, Springfield, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stein, Lima, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. William B. Hymer, Chicago.

The county board of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, held an important meeting Sunday afternoon, at which State Treasurer S. J. Hannagan, of Lafayette, and Treasurer John O'Hara, of Peru, were present. The latter gentlemen returned home yesterday.

The ordinance prohibiting the throwing of glass, tin cans and other rubbish in the street is violated with impunity. Broken beer and pop bottles, iron hoops and cans are a source of much annoyance to bicyclists, who must be on the lookout constantly or have their tires punctured.

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Driver, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sunderland, of South Calhoun street, left for Marion to day. Another guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sunderland last night was J. W. Brown, of Columbia City, who is making a canvass in behalf of his candidacy for lieutenant governor.

The evangeliatic services now in progress at Heidelberg Reformed church, Harrison street, near Wayne, are deepening in interest. The preaching is pointed, strong and vigorous and the gospel singing spirited. The subject for this evening is "The Wonderful Magnetism of the Gospel."

The attention of the police has been called to the fact that Calhoun street, south of Creighton avenue, is being used almost every afternoon as a race track. Some fellows who have alleged fast horses get out on that street and drive at full speed for a distance of three or four squares. The residents of the street claim it is dangerous and that they are obliged to keep their children in the house while the driving is being indulged in.

Robert L. Freeman, one of the most widely known farmers in the county, died Sunday night very suddenly at his home, near Huntertown. He had eaten supper and sat down to enjoy a chat, when suddenly he fell out of his chair to the floor and died immediately. Coroner Harrod was called out yesterday, and, assisted by Dr. Greenwell, of Huntertown, made an examination. He found that death resulted from a blood clot on the brain. Mr. Freeman was fifty two years of age and leaves a family.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

Of the Allen County Sunday School Association

Held at Kendallville Friday and Saturday---Officers Elected, Etc.

The Allen County Sunday School association held its annual convention in the M. E. church at Monroeville, last Friday evening and Saturday. State Superintendent C. D. Meigs was present and presented the work throughout the state in a manner that showed that the Sunday school interests are full of activity. Addresses were made by County Superintendent A. D. Craig and County Missionary B. W. Hart, S. F. Bowser and others. J. W. Cromwell conducted the singing and also sang several solos. Miss Estella Steirheim, county secretary, presented an excellent report which showed that there were in Allen county 112 Sunday schools, divided among the following denominations:

Methodist	30
Methodist Protestant	4
Lutheran	10
Union	22
Unknown	12
Free for all	1
Church of God	3
United Brethren	5
Presbyterian	5
Universalist	1
Reformed	2
Episcopal	1
Jewish	2
Congregationalist	2
Christian	6
Baptist	5

There are in the city of Fort Wayne thirty-six Sunday schools and in the county seventy-six. Number of conversions in Sunday schools during the year, 665.

S. F. Bowser, county treasurer, made his report as follows:

Receipts		$ 545 95
Paid B. W. Hart	$ 438 26
Miscellaneous expenses	77 82	536 08
Balance on hand		$ 9 89

The county missionary, B. W. Hart, made an excellent report which showed the great work that had been done during the year. Twenty-one new Sunday schools have been started with an enrollment of between 900 and 1,000. During the year he has traveled 6,000 miles in the county, visited over 800 families and held twenty-five township conventions.

The officers for the ensuing year were then elected as follows:

President—E. A. K. Hackett.

Vice President—Paul Mossman.

Treasurer—S. F. Bowser.

General Superintendent—A. D. Craig.

Secretary—Miss Estella Steirheim.

Assistant Secretary—Miss Janie Leach.

Mr. B. W. Hart was engaged for county missionary for another year.

The appointment of township presidents were not completed, but as far as selected are as follows:

Aboite—J. S. Hudson.

The other townships will be selected by the executive committee in a short time.

Interesting reports were read during the convention from many of the townships throughout the county and showed the work to be in excellent condition.

The next convention will be held in Fort Wayne some time in December.

FIFTEEN ROUNDS.

Everhardt Lays Leeds Out by a Jolt on the Jaw.

MESPETH, L. I., March 31.—Jack Everhardt and Horace Leeds, light weights, fought fifteen rounds last night in the Empire Athletic club. They were scheduled to fight twenty-five rounds, but a "jolt" on the jaw laid Leeds out in the fifteenth round. The vanquished pugilist was unconscious for several hours and it was feared he would not recover. At 11:30 o'clock, however, he regained consciousness and was soon able to get up and dress himself.

TRIANGULAR AFFAIR.

Uncle Sam and John Bull Have a Grievance.

France Has Usurped Hova Contrary to Treaties With the United States and Great Britain.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—While it cannot be learned that the United States has yet joined with Great Britain in representations to France respecting the setting aside by the latter of the treaties of commerce and amity that have existed between them and the Hova government of Madagascar, it is believed that the matter is rapidly assuming a phase that will call for some action by our government. With Great Britain the United States has a treaty with the Hova government that guarantees to our citizens privileges equal to those accorded any other nation. This means, for one thing, that no greater duties shall be imposed on goods imported into Madagascar from the United States than from any other country. It is the purpose of the French government to remove this equality and reserve special privileges for French merchants, and France has notified our state department that by virtue of this assumption of control over the foreign relations of Madagascar these treaties shall fail.

If France has annexed Madagascar or made it a French colony, then our government must admit her right to abrogate the treaties in this fashion, but it is not certain that the present anomalous status of the French on the island can be regarded as sufficient to warrant the assumption of any such right, and it may be that before our government will admit, there must be some much more explicit definition of the exact scope of French authority in Madagascar, and a clear assumption of the responsibility for the government of the island. Our trade with Madagascar is quite large.

DRUNKEN HOBOS.

A Gang Get Into a Fight Among Themselves.

Detective Stoll and Officer Greer Swoop Down Upon Them and Gather Them In.

Six bums got into an altercation on Baker street at noon today, and soon were engaged in a bloody fight. They fought and chased each other down the alley to Chicago street and thence onto the Pennsylvania company's right-of-way. About that time Doc. Stoll, the railway detective, stepped out of the waiting room at the depot and was not slow in taking in the situation. Not being able to secure police assistance, owing to the fact that it was the noon hour and the officers had gone in for dinner, the plucky detective set out for the battle ground alone, and after a struggle managed to place two of the toughs under arrest. At this opportune moment Officer Greer arrived on the scene and offered his assistance. Stoll turned the two prisoners over to him and then arrested two more of the men. The other two bums took to their heels and escaped, while the four prisoners were loaded into the patrol which had been summoned, and carted down to the calaboose.

They were too drunk to give their names at the police station. One of the bums was just released from jail a day or two ago.

CAPTURED THE BOYS.

Mrs. Owen Farnan, of Lakeside, reported to the police yesterday that her six young sons had run away from school and she wanted them captured and returned home. Humane Officer Schlandroff started to hunt for the lads and in the afternoon found two of them on their way to the river with fish poles in their hands. He chased them, but the oldest boy eluded him. Frankie, the youngest, who is eight years old, plunged into Spy Run, which is now a stream of considerable size and would no doubt have drowned, had not Park Superintendent Doswell gone in and fished him out. Frankie was then locked up in the police station and kept there for several hours, after which he was released and taken home. He was given a good, sound lecture and promised solemnly that he would go to school every day in the future. The other boys turned up at home at meal time. The next time they play truant they will receive the attention of the law.

FOUND TWO GUNS.

Albert Gesler, a butcher employed at Eckart's establishment, found two revolvers and a cartridge box in the yard of Prof. Gerberding, on the corner of Jefferson and Barr streets, while he was passing the place at 5 o'clock Sunday morning. He notified the police and Officer Elliott went to the place and took charge of the weapons. He also found forty-one cartridges on the ground. It is supposed they were thrown there by a pair of burglars who feared being captured with the weapons in their possession.

WHERE IS BUTLER?

He is Said to be Mysteriously Missing.

Left Home Last Wednesday and Has Not Been Heard of Since.

A. Butler, who for a number of years has purchased country produce on the streets, is said to be missing from his usual haunts and the family is sorely distressed over his mysterious absence. He left home in his usual spirits last Wednesday morning, and diligent inquiry has failed to produce any one who has seen or heard of him since. Mr. Butler is about fifty-five years old, five feet ten inches in height and weighed about 180 pounds. He resides at the corner of Edgerton avenue and Winter street, where a wife and three children are now anxiously awaiting his return.

LOCAL LINES.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the city Y. M. C. A. meets in the parlors at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. J. M. Henry will entertain, at her home to-morrow afternoon, the members of the H. F. F. club.

Mrs. T. A. Tyler will entertain the Ladies' society of Beaver Chapel on Thursday afternoon, at her home.

The runaway team, reported in yesterday's paper, did not belong to Henry Kammeyer, but to his son-in-law, Chas. Wiese, of Gar Creek. Nothing was broken.

The Morning Musical held an extra session this morning at the home of Mrs. T. E. Ellison. The board of directors called this meeting of the active members to arrange for meeting, a want felt by the active membership. Owing to the club's rapid growth many members are practically strangers and feel a hesitancy in doing program work. The plan of the directors for extra meetings of the active members on alternate Fridays was heartily approved by the large number present.

NEW YORK, March 31.—Word has been received from Manchester, Vermont, of the death of ex-Mayor Orestes Cleveland, of Jersey City.

TRIED IT AGAIN.

Jessie Teeples Comes Near Taking Her Life.

Her Second Attempt---This Time She Swallowed Laudanum---Threatens Further Attempts.

It will be remembered that THE SENTINEL a few days ago told about Jessie Teeples making an attempt to commit suicide. Jessie is the girl who roomed over Harry Gilbert's saloon, on Calhoun street, and tried to kill herself because, she said, Gilbert had made love to her and then gave her the marble heart. She said she had nothing left to live for.

A few days later she and her mother moved from those rooms to No. 16 Chicago street. She had been very quiet since then and yesterday Mrs. Teeples left Jessie alone for a short time while she went down street. When Jessie's life was saved by Dr. Kappel the other time she vowed she would yet kill herself, and no sooner was she alone yesterday than she made the second attempt. She went out and bought a quantity of laudanum at a drug store. She then went to the back room of Pete Creigh's saloon, No. 12 Chicago street. She swallowed the laudanum and washed it down with a drink of whisky. Soon she became unconscious and when a female acquaintance entered the room at 7 o'clock last night and found her Jessie was about dead.

Dr. Kappel was again summoned. When he arrived the girl showed no sign of life except the faintest breathing. The doctor went to work at her and after several hours' hard work he brought the girl to consciousness. She immediately began to lament the fact that she had not been allowed to die, and said she would make a sure job of it next time.

It is thought that Miss Teeples is a little bit cracked on the subject of suicide and there is some talk of having her mental condition inquired into.

B. P. W. MEETS.

Remonstrance Against Paving Montgomery Street.

Allen Street Will Not be Paved Just Yet---Bids Opened for the New Fountains.

At the meeting of the board of public works yesterday afternoon the following bids for the construction of the five new drinking fountains were opened: J. W. Bookwalter, $325; F. J. Zimmerly, $397; Seavey Hardware company, $310. The bids were taken under advisement and the designs for the fountains will be investigated.

Montgomery Hamilton filed a remonstrance against the paving of Montgomery street. The board also decided to not pave Allen street until it can be paved from Calhoun to Lafayette street.

A sewer builders' license was granted to T. B. Empie.

A resolution was passed declaring vacant the alley between Calhoun and Clinton streets, from Railroad street to Chestnut street.

William Geake was granted permission to build by private contract a sewer on Pearl street, to connect with the Griffith street sewer, in order that he may have an outlet for the washings from his stone sawing machines.

The appointment of April 10 as the date for hearing remonstrances against the proposed paving of Montgomery street will give those "fer" and "fernist" an opportunity to make themselves heard.

GYMNASIUM TOURNAMENT.

The Y. M. C. A. Preparing for its Annual Exhibition.

For several weeks past Professor Loveliss, the physical director of the City Y. M. C. A., has been hard at work with his classes preparing for the fourth annual gymnastic tournament, which will be held at the Masonic Temple Monday, April 6. The exhibition this year bids fair to eclipse all former efforts in this direction. A program of exceptional merit has been prepared, which includes every phase of gymnasium work. The specialties, including the parallel bars, vaulting horse, horizontal bar and the tumbling, will be in charge of a specially selected class of ten experts, whose work is of a high order. A feature that will be both novel and interesting will be the third part of the program, when two young athletes, selected for their splendid physical development, will give a series of classic statuary poses. This work will be done in white costumes against a black background, with colored lights, and will without doubt prove of a very pleasing nature.

QUICK TIME DIVORCE.

Viola Woodward Separated From Her Husband.

Superior Court Jury Selected---The Verdict in the Robinson Case---Criminal Cases.

In the superior court this morning Attorney Chas. A. Hays filed a petition asking that his client, Viola Woodward, be given a divorce from her husband, Clyde Woodward. The defendant acknowledged the service of summons and the case was at once called up for hearing before Judge Dawson. The plaintiff was put on the stand and testified to the habitual drunkenness, cruel treatment, failure to provide of the defendant. The defendant was then questioned by the judge but refused to answer. Turning to the court baliff Judge Dawson said: "Bailiff, take this man to jail until he consents to answer the questions."

"Oh, I'll answer them," interposed the defendant immediately, and then he acknowledged the truth of some of the allegations and consented to the granting of the divorce.

Judge Dawson granted the plaintiff a divorce from the defendant.

CRIMINAL CASES.

Frank Sordelett was on trial in the circuit court room today for burglary. He was given thirty days in jail by the jury verdict.

Frank Thompson was sent to jail for sixty days for burglarizing the place of Frank Lordier.

NOTE WAS A FORGERY.

The jury in the case of Martha Sled, the wife of Dr. Sled, against James V. Robinson, administrator of the estate of W. S. Robinson, deceased, which has been on trial in the circuit court during the last few days, was decided yesterday afternoon by the jury returning a verdict in favor of the defendant.

The suit was brought on a promissory note of $1,000 given to Dr. Samuel D. Sled to secure a loan of that amount, made to Jacob Carey Robinson and supposed to be signed by W. S. Robinson and his son, Jacob Carey Robinson. The jury found that the name of W. S. Robinson was a forgery, and for that reason his estate was not held liable for its payment, the forgery having been committed by James Carey Robinson, who is now a fugitive from justice.

One of the sensational features of the trial was the evidence of Mrs. Robinson, the wife of the forger of the note, James Carey Robinson. She testified that she had seen the father, W. S. Robinson, sign the note in dispute and that he had done so at the request of her husband. She also testified that he had signed other notes which juries have since pronounced to be forgeries. The jury, however, disbelieved her testimony and found that the name of the father to the note sued on was a forgery and had been written there by the son, James Carey Robinson, and hence the estate of W. S. Robinson was not held liable for its payment.

Mrs. Robinson while on the witness stand was asked to divulge the whereabouts of her husband, but, on the advice of her attorney, Judge Hench, refused to answer the question. There are several notes for large amounts to which the name of W. S. Robinson has been forged and on which the son has secured loans, and afterwards skipped out for parts unknown.

In the case just decided Zollars & Worden represented the plaintiffs and, Judge W. G. and Will Colerick the defendant.

BEYERLIN CASE APPEALED.

The case of the state against Fred Beyerlien has been taken on appeal from the circuit to the supreme court on alleged error. Beyerlien, it will be remembered, was convicted of having forged the name of Jacob Schaefenacher to a note of $75 and sold it to A. H. Bittenger. He was sentenced to a term of two years in the penitentiary and is now at Michigan City. His attorneys were Breen & Morris.

One of the grounds for error is that the court allowed the testimony of the prisoner's wife to go to the jury, it being contended that it was improper evidence because of the relation between the witness and the prisoner. She testified that Beyerlien had forced her, by threats that he would kill her, to sign the name of Schaefenacher to the note, and that she had done so because she was afraid of him. She has since obtained a divorce from the prisoner.

One of the defenses made by the defendant's attorneys was that Beyerlien was insane. The jury, however, found him to be same, and adjudged him guilty of the crime of forgery.

New for a Busy Year.

The coldest and most uncomfortable March we have experienced in years closes its record to day, but with its close it has brought beautiful weather, and the month which was ushered in like a roaring lion will go out like a gentle lamb, thus verifying the old proverb. The effect of the cool weather during the month upon spring business has been depressing. People do not go out to buy spring goods while compelled to wear the heaviest winter wraps. March has been a spring month only in name, and the profitable spring trade which our merchants hope for is still in the future. There comes an end to all things, and the end of a cold, stormy March is at hand.

The net result of the backward spring will be that the spring trade will have to be done in a shorter season than usual. This means that the next two months are to be unusually busy ones. If Fort Wayne's prosperous spring season has been retarded a little by the weather it will be all the more prosperous from now on. The new spring suits for every member of every household will be wanted all the same, even if the winter suits have done duty for an extra month. Houses and rooms must be refurnished to suit summer needs, and every branch of our domestic and business life will draw upon new supplies to take the place of the outworn.

Fort Wayne was never so well prepared to do an unexampled year's business as now, and we trust for the benefit of our merchants, our manufacturers and our people generally that the busy hum of trade and industry will begin and continue throughout the year. The only obstacle in sight to a year of great prosperity is the presidential canvass with its uncertainties and its tendency to make business men timid and over cautious. But business men themselves can do much to minimize this retarding influence, if in every branch of trade and industry they will face the future with confidence and thus infuse confidence and activity into the business of the year. The outlook for trade is good, the facilities for doing business were never so complete, the country is growing in population and wealth, and the month of April upon which we are about to enter should be the busiest April this city and the entire country have ever known.

The Reason of It.

THE FORT WAYNE SENTINEL says that Will Ryan is "the saloon candidate" for senator from Allen and Whitley counties, and that Bobilya is "all right." All will remember that during the time the Nicholeon bill was pending in the legislature Mr. Bobilya was one of its fiercest antagonists. He fought it at every stage and his vote was recorded against it on final passage. Now THE SENTINEL quotes him as an excellent and loyal supporter of that measure Funny, ain't it? It would be interesting if THE SENTINEL would explain how it reconciles Mr. Bobilya's record with its present assertions —Morning Gazette.

Yes, we are always very glad to give the reasons for assertions that we make, and hence we will answer the above editorial in the Gazette. Our authority for speaking of Mr. Ryan as "the saloon candidate" is the latter's own statement made at the Fifth ward polls last Saturday afternoon, in the presence of a SENTINEL representative and others, while the primaries were in progress, and in answer to a voter's question. The reason why we claim Mr. Bobilya is for the Nicholson law is because he told a SENTINEL representative so and said, in an interview which we published in THE SENTINEL, that he would vote against the repeal of the Nicholson law, if he was a member of the next Indiana senate, should that question come up at the session for determination. The past and the present attitude of Mr. Bobilya towards the Nicholson law were fully explained in the interview published in the SENTINEL several days ago. He believes since it has become a law that the Nicholson bill is proving beneficial in its workings and that the majority of the people of the counties of this senatorial district are satisfied to have it continue in force.

HARRISON'S WEDDING.

The General Starts for the Scene of the Nuptials.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 31. — General Harrison, his private secretary, and Dan Ransdell, ex marshal of the District of Columbia, left this afternoon at 2:45 o'clock for New York, where General Harrison will, next Monday, be married to Mrs. Dimmick. The party will go via Pittsburg over the Pan Handle route. General Harrison is in better health and spirits than he has been since his first campaign. The Harrison party will arrive in New York tomorrow afternoon.

Lem R. Hartman, cashier of the First National bank, returned yesterday from Richmond, where, with Mrs. Hartman, he has been attending the Methodist conference as a lay delegate from the Wayne street church.

LOOKING AHEAD.

If you could look ahead a few months and see what was coming from those spells of weakness, loss of appetite, wasting of flesh and energy you wouldn't wait for disease to get a grip on you. You would begin right away to tone up your constitution with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It doesn't work miracles; but it does what other medicine can't do and what doctors say can't be done—until they see it done right under their noses—it cures consumption.—Not always; to say that would be an exaggeration, but in a large majority of cases; in advanced cases which have been given up as hopeless.

The "Discovery" is not called a consumption-cure; it is a blood-maker. It gives energy to the blood-making organs to create new blood, full of healthy red corpuscles. This rapid supply of pure, rich, red blood drives out all diseases that have their roots in the blood: Consumption is one of these; scrofula, malaria, eczema, erysipelas, catarrh—are others. It is absurd to doctor them separately as lung, or skin, or head diseases. They must be driven out of the blood. You can rely on the "Golden Medical Discovery" to do this every time.

It is not a patent medicine. It is the perfected result of 30 years, practical experience by one of the most skillful physicians and eminent medical authorities in this country:—Dr. R. V. Pierce, Chief Consulting Physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's 1008 page book, "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," reached the enormous sale of 680,000 copies at $1.50 each. This enormous sale having paid him a fair profit on the great amount of labor and money expended in producing it, he is now giving away absolutely free 500,000 copies, the recipient only being required to mail to him, at the above institution, 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, and the book will be sent post paid.

LIGHT OUT OF DARKNESS

By Mrs. HENRY WARD BEECHER.

CHAPTER XII.

And now there came frequent tidings of one battle after another, but always followed speedily by telegrams from Rose to assure the anxious home friends that, although the first in the conflict and the last to leave the field, her brothers thus far had been mercifully preserved unharmed. Dunbar's horse had once been shot under him, but he escaped without injury. His brave men, however, had suffered terribly. More than 20 of George's gallant 100 had fallen, and 12 more were now in the hospital, watched over by their gallant captain's sister with a tenderness and hearty sympathy that made her like an angel in their midst.

Then came another pause, during which the regiments had leisure to fill up their broken ranks, recruit their exhausted strength and restore order again in their camps. But it was only the quiet of the tempest while it gathers force to burst again upon the earth with fury and desolation.

Our friends at the farm had enjoyed one of those quiet, delightful Sabbaths that July sometimes bestows after a severe thunderstorm. Toward evening all were on the veranda watching the shadows falling over the clover fields, while the sun edged the grand old hills with fire as he slowly sunk to rest behind the dark mountains that overlooked the placid lake.

Just then a horse's hoofs were heard, and the next moment a horse and rider were seen rapidly approaching the house. It was an uncommon occurrence on the Sabbath, and every face betokened alarm. As the rider halted at the steps Mr. Newton rose and received a dispatch. The boy lingered one moment and then rode quickly away. To how many does the sight of a telegram bring fear and forebodings of evil, even when from business necessities they are of frequent occurrence, and how one not accustomed to receiving them shrinks from the first glance of the contents! Thus stood Mr. Newton, while every eye turned anxiously toward him. His own face was very pale and his hand trembled when at last he opened it. As his eyes took in the message a heavy groan burst from his lips, but he instantly controlled himself as his wife and daughter exclaimed:

"Oh, my boys!" "My husband!"

"Be brave, my dear ones. It is from Rose. A fearful battle at Bull Run. We are shamefully beaten. Eustace slightly wounded, but George and Ralph are missing. Come—come to me quickly!"

Ah, was not this a bitter cup? How will they bear it? The noble father, the tender mother, the loving bride and sister and the dear younger brother! Their faith and trust in God must be strong indeed to carry them safely through these deep waters!

Lillian was the first to speak.

"We must go at once, dear father. Eustace will be well cared for, but Rose needs counsel and support immediately."

A guard was placed over him.

"Yes, my darling. But there is no train that we can reach till early Monday morning.

"My dear wife, you are not well. I dread this rapid and exciting journey for you. Will you not remain at home, leaving Lillian and myself to do what we can for our children, yet keeping you informed by daily telegrams?"

In the early morning Alfred returned. "Good news. I telegraphed to Rose as soon as I reached the city and received this answer not 10 minutes before I was obliged to leave," handing the dispatch to his father.

"George safe with us. Eustace doing well, but Ralph is a prisoner. Let Alfred come with Lillian. Father and mother can do nothing toward Ralph's release."

Great was the joy at this release from part of their fears, but it was with difficulty that the mother could be persuaded to relinquish the idea of going herself. She at last consented on one condition—that her husband should accompany Lillian, leaving Alfred to supply his father's place at home.

Mr. Newton and his daughter reached the camp without any delay, sending back by the magic wires an immediate report of their safe arrival and the comfort their presence gave the anxious children.

At noon the next day came the following:

"Ralph is safely with us. Expect a letter the next mail."

The letter came in due time, as follows:

"Dunbar's wound in the left arm, from a bayonet thrust, was slight, and would not have kept him from his work a day, but at the same time he was knocked from his horse, rescued by his men and carried from the field.

"George and Ralph have been wonderfully preserved. Their regiment was among the most fearless and daring."

In a letter to his wife Mr. Newton thus describes how Ralph appeared in the Union lines:

"Yesterday afternoon as we were seated in Eustace's tent a loud shout from his men outside brought us all upon the grounds. Great excitement was manifested by all, and repeated cheers from the front sounded strangely out of place where all but a moment before had been quiet, moody or despondent. As the men saw the colonel leave his tent they made way for us to pass toward the front, and in the distance we saw that a horseman riding furiously was the occasion of the excitement. The instant Dunbar espied him he exclaimed: 'Look! Surely I cannot be mistaken. That is Prince, but such a uniform—who can the rider be?' It was their colonel's well known horse the men had cheered so heartily, but they now stood anxiously waiting for a nearer approach to recognize the rider.

"It was but a moment's suspense before, without checking his headlong speed, he stripped the rebel coat from his shoulders, threw it from him and raising the cap from his head tossed it high in the air to fall in the ditch beyond, with a full, joyous 'Hurrah!' which was answered by the most deafening cheers. We all recognized that voice. Rose sprang forward, crying 'Ralph! Ralph! my darling brother!' as he dashed into our midst flung himself from the panting horse and clasped her in his arms."

The letter still further explained that on the first night of Ralph's capture those who had charge of the prisoners encamped in a wood not many miles from Bull Run, being unable to proceed farther and confident that our army had been too greatly dispirited to rally sufficiently to regain what they had so needlessly lost. From the first Ralph was determined to escape before he reached their prison house. A guard was placed over him, who abused and insulted him in the most heartless and unnatural manner. He assumed meanwhile a weary, dispirited manner, and at last appeared to sink into the heavy sleep of great exhaustion. This after a time relaxed their vigilance, and they yielded to fatigue and whisky, which soon completely overpowered them.

When all was quiet and deep sleep settled down upon the captors, slowly and painfully, stiff from many blows and bruises, Ralph succeeded in dragging himself clear of the slumbering guards, passing one who had thrown cap and overcoat near where he lay in his drunken stupor. It took but a moment to disguise himself in a rebel's uniform, and greatly rejoicing to find a loaded revolver in the pocket silently passed beyond the guarded tent. Then the rash boy, remembering that he had seen a number of captured horses fastened near by as he marched to the prison tent and sure that he recognized Eustace's horse among them, delayed till he could judge by his ear of the position, then crept skillfully among the trees to the spot where they were tethered. Prince's low, welcoming whinny revealed him before Ralph, by the fitful moonlight, could be sure of his exact locality. Instantly unfastening the halter he sprang into the saddle, which remained as the master had fallen from it, and dashed fearlessly away.

Evidently the sentry was half asleep or had not distinguished the little noise he made from the stamping and restlessness of so many weary and unfed horses around him, but leaving the swamp where they were tied and passing, as he must, the tents a guard sprang forward, presenting his musket, and demanded the countersign. Not daring to use his pistol lest he should too soon rouse the sleepers within, the only answer he returned was a well directed blow, which staggered the man, giving Prince freedom to rush forward. The sentinel recovered himself immediately and fired, but with an unsteady hand. It was sufficient, however, to rouse the men, and in a few minutes he could hear the confused and fierce call to arms. Many random shots were fired, but the good steed carried the brave boy gallantly, and he was soon beyond their pursuit.

Early in the morning after this dark and perilous ride Ralph once ventured to halt at a house by the wayside and ask for a piece of bread and a cup of milk, which were given him, whether out of respect for his borrowed uniform or from a kindly heart he could not judge, and twice he stopped to give the faithful Prince a good feed of grass and draft of pure water. When at last the camp with Eustace's regimental colors flying opened on his sight, it was the happiest moment of his life.

Twice had Dunbar in the midst of a furious assault been brought face to face with Grenville. The first was but a passing glance as in the rush of battle they swept past each other. The last was only a few moments before Eustace's fall. A rebel aimed full at him while giving an order, but in a moment a cavalry officer dashed to the soldier's side, threw up his arm by a quick movement of his sword, as if by accident, and with a sad look raised his cap to Eustace and wheeled off in an opposite direction. That officer was Jasper Grenville. Ralph had also seen him, and burning with indignation, guided only by the impulse of the moment, endeavored to reach him and in that rash attempt was surrounded and taken a prisoner.

Mr. Newton and his daughter returned to the farm, and time sped on, bringing weekly reports from absent ones and meting out full measures of quiet enjoyment for those at home, crowning their toil with great success and more than the hoped for remuneration. The harvest had been carefully garnered, and the sales were rapid. The family were beginning to look forward to the winter as a period of less severe toil, bringing leisure for much reading, and, of more value than all else, a reasonable hope that their children might be able to secure a few days for home, as the slow and seemingly sluggish efforts of the various corps and divisions to recruit would indicate there was little expectation of active service during the winter.

One cold and snowy evening the family were gathered around the cheerful fire, when without a word of warning Rose and Ralph walked in and were clasped in their parents' arms. Some minutes of joyful greeting and glad surprise passed before Lillian could gain an answer to her inquiries after her husband. Then she learned that neither Eustace nor George could be spared, as their regiment was ordered to join the army at Vicksburg, with 10 days for preparation. The brothers had urged Ralph to obtain a short furlough and accompany his sister on this visit, bearing their loving greetings, while they tarried behind to expedite arrangements.

A real home supper was prepared for the beloved guests, and while seated at the familiar board all care and anxiety was dismissed from their minds. If Lillian's heart yearned for her husband's presence and the parents missed George's thoughtful attentions, it was carefully concealed during this meal. Once more gathered in the cheerful parlors, questions flowed continually, but not so absorbingly as to prevent the parents from giving Rose's looks and words careful attention. They were soon satisfied that no corroding sorrow was preying upon their darling's peace. True, she was in many respects greatly changed. The strange, sad experience of her hospital life had given a maturity of thought and expression that was singularly contrasted with her bright, girlish face and figure. Years of home life could never have developed the strength and enthusiasm of her character as the last two months had done.

The bond between herself and twin brother was even stronger than when in their home life. No shadow of concealment ever came between them, and without words they seemed to understand each other's hearts instinctively.

When it was time to retire, Rose said, "Stay a moment longer, please. I have a few words to say before retiring.

"I know, my dear parents, you have had much anxiety on my account and many fears that I might not be able to rise above the cruel disappointment that came so suddenly upon me. I do not pretend that I have not suffered very bitterly. But it was the pain of misplaced confidence, the knowledge that what I had thought a priceless treasure was worse than dross, a thing to loathe and scorn. It takes time to banish regrets for such impoverishment, but the love so unutterably squandered can never be renewed. From the hour that Jasper Grenville joined himself to traitors against his country his power over me ceased. He is now a prisoner, taken by a scouting party in the rash attempt to obtain a clandestine interview with me. I am thankful that it did not fall to my brothers to capture him, but it is well that his efforts against our country are ended, at least for the present.

"Lillian, my sister, you look at me in sad surprise that I speak of him so coolly. You think me hard and unfeeling."

"Ah, no, Rosie! But I cannot understand how a love so strong as yours was can be so totally annihilated, even if the object prove, as Grenville has, utterly unworthy."

"Ah, dear sister! If this had been of the common order of sin or worthlessness, there might have lingered some shades of tenderness, but for the son who would trample upon his mother, the traitor who would betray and destroy his country, there can exist no feeling but entire indifference. Yes—a stronger one than that—detestation."

"And what," interrupted Ralph, "do you imagine that Grenville hoped to gain by a disguised entrance into my sister's presence? Why, to persuade her to leave us and allow the first rebel chaplain to marry them and then convey her to his southern home! Or, if she thought that was asking too much, to secure her promise to be his when the south had subdued us."

"How did you learn this?" asked his father in amazement.

BAD STATE OF AFFAIRS.

Fifteen Hundred Men Out of Employment.

A Disagreement Between Employer and Employe Results in the Closing of the Works.

COLUMBUS, Ga., March 31.—The closing down of the two great Eagle and Phoenix cotton mills last night for an indefinite period, and the consequent throwing of over 1,500 people out of employment has produced a serious situation here. The strikers are orderly and quiet. Efforts are being made by business men looking to an immediate settlement of the strike.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction, she was brought down with pneumonia, succeeding la grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Dreier & Bro.'s Drug Store. Regular size, 50c and $1.00.

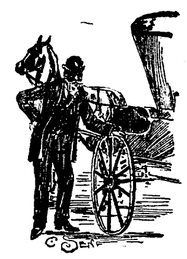
Couldn't Stand Upright.



June 11th, 1894.
THE DR. J. H. MCLEAN MEDICINE CO.,
St. Louis, Mo.

GENTLEMEN: For about ten years I suffered with a pain in my back which I thought was caused by a strain. Sometimes it got so bad I could not stand upright or ride in my buggy. I read in your almanac of symptoms that I recognized as my own, which led me to the conclusion that my trouble was disease in the kidneys. I immediately began using

DR. J. H. McLEAN'S LIVER AND KIDNEY BALM.

It proved to be the right medicine and reached the spot. I soon lost all pain and have better health than ever before. It is more than a year now since I quit using it and have not had a pain or sick day in all that time. It is certainly a wonderful medicine for the kidneys.

Yours truly,

KIRK'S

Eos (Elixir of Soap.)

Creates a Great Sensation.

The Office of "The Sentinel" Crowded With People Anxious to Obtain a Free Sample of This Marvelous Discovery.

Clerks Kept Busy All Day Handing Out Samples and Answering Questions.

Free Distribution Continued Today From 9 a. m. Until 5 p. m.—This is Your Last Opportunity to Obtain a Free Sample.

That the people of Fort Wayne and vicinity appreciate the enterprise displayed by THE SENTINEL was thoroughly proven by the throng that crowded their office yesterday for a free sample of Jas S. Kirk & Co's latest discovery, Eos (Elixir of Soap)

Everywhere people could be heard discussing Kirk's new preparation, which from this time forth means an entire change in doing all laundry work

Think of it! from now on no soap is required to do the family washing when Eos (the Elixir of Soap) is used.

Eos (the Elixir of Soap) is the product and discovery of fifty-six years of successful soap making. No discovery in recent years of any preparation for laundry use and general washing has created the sensation and enthusiasm that Eos has.

It may be justly termed the great revolutionizer for all washing purposes, for both the laundry and the toilet.

Among the claims made for Eos, which Messrs. James S. Kirk & Co. stand prepared to prove, are the following:

That it will soften the hardest water; it will keep blueing from curdling in the water.

Flannels and woolens washed with this most valuable preparation will positively not shrink; for the bath or toilet it is indispensable, making the water soft and velvety, giving the skin a healthy glow, and removing any superfluous excretion that may adhere to the body.

For dishes and general washing purposes it is very essential as it saves both labor and the soap usually required.

This preparation must not be confounded with the ordinary soap powders, for while no soap is required when Eos is used it contains no lye, ammonia, borax, lime, or any deleterious ingredients. It is essential that all consumers of soap must eventually use it.

It is for the baby's flannels and woolens; it acts as a strong antiseptic for invalid's flannels, woolens and linens.

Eos saves 100 per cent of soap, which means that absolutely no soap is required when Eos is used, and also saves 60 per cent. of labor.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. A RELIC OF THE PAST.

Surgical Operations for the Cure of Piles and Rectal Diseases

NO LONGER NECESSARY.

A Medical Discovery Which Will Change the Treatment of All Such Diseases.

It has long been thought not only by some physicians but by the people in general that the common, painful and exceedingly annoying trouble, piles, was practically incurable by any other means than a surgical operation, and this belief has been the cause of years of needless suffering, because of the natural dread of surgical operations.

There are many salves, ointments and similar remedies on the market which afford some relief in cases of piles, but the Pyramid Pile Cure is the only preparation so far introduced that can be reliably depended upon to cure to stay cured, every form of itching, bleeding or protruding piles.

Mrs. M. C. Hinkley of 601 Mississippi St., Indianapolis, was told by her physicians that nothing but a surgical operation costing between seven and eight hundred dollars could cure her as she had suffered for 15 years; yet even in such a case as hers the Pyramid Pile Cure accomplished a complete cure. She says: "I knew an operation would be death to me and tried the Pyramid with very little hope and it is not to be wondered at that I am so enthusiastic in its praise."

Major Dean of Columbus, Ohio, says he suffered for 40 years from piles and 20 years from itching piles and in his case two packages of the Pyramid cured him.

Mr. D. E. Reed of South Lyons, Mich., says I would not take $500 and be placed back where I was before I used the Pyramid Pile Cure. I suffered for years and it is now eighteen months since I used it and not the slightest trace of the trouble has returned.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by nearly all druggists at 50 cents and $1 per package and as it contains no opium, cocaine or other poisonous drug can be used with perfect safety.

No one need suffer from piles in any form who will give this excellent remedy a trial. Made by the Pyramid Co., Albion, Mich. Any druggist can get it for you.

BOTH CLAIM VICTORY.

Watson-Johnson Congressional Contest Ends Tomorrow.

Is Waging With Intense Bitterness—A New Move on the Indiana Apportionment.

INDIANAPOLIS Ind., March 31.—The contest between Congressmen Johnson and Watson in the Sixth district has assumed proportions that have rarely been attained in a contest for office in Indiana. The Watson men are confident and very aggressive and are claiming Henry county, which will decide by primary vote tomorrow, by a heavy majority, while the Johnson men are claiming it by from 200 to 300 votes.

At the little town of Cadiz the Christian church was thrown open to Johnson last week and he spoke from the pulpit. When Watson asked for a similar favor it was denied him. The Methodists at once threw their church open to him, and now the two flocks are at war with each other. Watson is a Methodist, and it is claimed by his friends that the Christian church was refused him because of his faith.

Women are electioneering and are seen upon the street day and night arguing for their favorite. Owing to the intense feeling some of the merchants have lost their best customers and boycotts have been started and are being actively carried on by the Johnson men against Watson's friends who are in business and by the Watson men against Johnson.

The final rally of the campaign took place to day an New Castle, and Johnson and Watson are both present and made speeches from different platforms and in different parts of the city. Excursion trains were run from all parts of the district. There is much uneasiness on account of the excited conditions that prevail and many of the leading republicans fear trouble.

The democrats of Hammond held their city convention last night and ratified the ward nominations made Saturday evening and also nominated Robert Gregory as a candidate for city judge.

NEW MOVE ON APPORTIONMENT.

Lewis Wallace, jr., has filed an intervening petition in the case of William Denny and others against the state, on relation of Fred Boslet, decided by the supreme court sixty days ago with the result that the apportionment acts of 1891 and 1895 were declared unconstitutional. The petition avers that the recent decision related to only isolated statutes and not to the whole cause, which he now wishes to present. He pleads that that decision establishes a precedent whereby the Hamilton county court, in the apportionment suit now pending, must declare all apportionment acts unconstitutional and that the prospects point to the nonexistence of a legislature, which will be in violation of the state's compact with the United States.

Mr. Wallace asks the supreme court to decide which law is valid, so that the legislature may be chosen thereby. He pleads that the reception of his petition will end all litigation relative to the apportionment, much to the advantage of the electors of the state. The petitioner also sets out at length what are alleged to be faults in the ruling of the supreme court. He avers that he has no interest either in the prosecution or defense of the suit now pending in Hamilton county or elsewhere, and that he is acting independently and in his capacity as an elector, without relation to any particular interest.

The petition has occasioned surprise in political circles. The democrats believe that Wallace's petition is presented to forstall action on the motion to dismiss the case.

MISSIONARIES NOT MOLESTED.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 31.—In consequence of the urgent representations of the British embassador, Sir Philip Currie, and the United States charge d'affairs, Mr. John W. Riddley, the Porte has furnished written assurances that the missionaries in Anatolia will not be molested in the work of distributing relief, on condition that an Ottoman official is permitted to assist in the distribution of the funds, etc.

SITUATION DARKER.

The Matabele Outbreak Assumes a Serious Aspect.

The Whole Country About Buluwayo is in a State of Open Insurrection.

CAPE TOWN March 31.—It is difficult to obtain accurate information regarding the progress of the rebellion of the natives of Matabelland. The authorities naturally are withholding all the information possible, as there is no doubt that it would be made use of by the enemies of British rule in South Africa. It is not denied, however, that the situation becomes darker every day and that a very strong force of men will be necessary to restore order.

The whole of the country outside of a radius of about twelve miles around Buluwayo is in a state of open insurrection and the Matabeles and natives are flocking to the Matopo hills, where the son of the late King Lobengula is said to have been raised to his father's rank with much ceremony, preparatory to taking command of the army of insurgent natives flocking to the hills from all parts.

The general opinion expressed here is that the charter companies and the British home government greatly underestimate the serious state of affairs which prevails here. This seems to be especially the case with the British government and it would seem that the latter must be intentionally or unintentionally misled by the chartered company's officials or by others.

PASTORS RETURNED.

Dr. H. W. Bennett, Rev. C. C. Cissell and Rev. Paschall.

Changes Made at Trinity and St. Paul M. E. Churches—Close of the Conference.

RICHMOND, Ind., March 31.—The north Indiana conference of the Methodist Episcopal church won the hearts of the ladies yesterday in a wholesouled manner. The question of admitting women to the general conference, both from the lay and ministerial conferences, came up, and the conference voted in favor of the proposition unanimously. The question was not even discussed, so much agreed were all the members on the question. The conference also voted in favor of an amendment by which the general conference shall not allow more than one ministerial representative for every fourteen members of an annual conference, nor a less number than one for sixty five. The purpose of this is to reduce the membership of the general conference.

The cabinet, which has been in session during the conference, made the announcement of the assignment of ministers to their charges for the ensuing year today. These are usually made on Monday morning, but the work of the conference was somewhat delayed this year and they were not made until today. The appointments of interest to Fort Wayne are as follows:

Presiding Elder of Fort Wayne District—Rev. F. T. Simpson

Pastor, Wayne Street Church—Rev. Dr. H. W. Bennett.

Pastor, Berry Street Church—Rev. C. C. Cissell.

Pastor, Simpson Church—Rev. J. W. Paschall.

Pastor, Trinity Church—Rev. E. F. Alberson.

Pastor, St. Paul Church—Rev. M. C. Cooper.

The selection of Rev. Simpson, Dr. Bennett, Rev. Cissell and Rev. Paschall are reappointments to the positions they have been filling. Rev. Cooper was at Fort Wayne a few years ago, but has been since filling an appointment in Illinois. He is a young minister of ability.

Rev. H. M. Johnson, formerly of the Trinity church at Fort Wayne, is sent to Fairmont, and Rev. J. M. Stewart, formerly of St. Paul, is sent to Markle.

Dr. Driver is returned to Marion, Dr. Eldridge to Anderson, and Rev. Lamport goes to Goshen.

Kokomo was selected as the place for holding the next session of the conference. The name of Fort Wayne was not presented as a contestant. There were but two places presented—Kokomo and Hartford City—and a rising vote showed 88 for Kokomo and 86 for Hartford City.

The resolutions against popular amusements were quite stringent and opposed the general conference abolishing the blacklist, which contains the names of those violating the rules of the church along the line.

An attempt was made to get through a memorial to the general conference to change the ritual of the church so as not to express baptismal regeneration, in which the denomination does not believe; also to change the expression, "holy catholic church." After a heated discussion the memorial was killed, being considered to radical in its scope.

The report from the American Bible society showed that in the sixty years it has existed it has printed and largely circulated more than 61,000,000 copies of the Bible. They are sold at cost, and given to those not able to buy. These Bibles are printed in 242 languages.

The following trustees of De Pauw university were elected: Rev. C. C. Hudson, Elkhart; Hugh Dougherty, Bluffton; Rev. M. H. Mendenhall, Union City, and J. T. Elliot, Logansport. The plan of the American university, at Washington City, was approved.

The committee on freedmen's aid and southern education reported that the society now has forty-five institutions of learning, twenty-two of them devoted to the Christian education of the American negro, of whom 4 851 were in attendance the past two years; twenty-two of the schools are for poor white people of the south, of whom 3,278 were in attendance the same year. These institutions are sending out converted young men and women.

The society owns $2,000,000 worth of real estate, and has sole charge of the religious education of 547 000 communicants living in the territory covered by thirty-five conferences. Marvelous results have been obtained. This conference appropriated $2 982 to assist the work.

DISTRIBUTION OF SEEDS.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Secretary Morton has let the contract for the 10,125,000 packets of vegetable seeds to be distributed to the public, under the recent act of congress, to D. Landreth & Sons, of Philadelphia. The price fixed is $70,000, the seeds to be delivered, subject to germinative test under a very carefully drawn contract, free of cost to the department in Washington, ready for mailing. The contract for a million packets of flower seeds was let to L. L. May & Co., of St. Paul, Minn., at half a cent per package.

CUBANS GARROTTED.

A Sickening Spectacle in the Streets of Havana.

Five Men Put to Death in the Most Bungling and Horrible Manner.

HAVANA, March 31.—Never in modern times has there been a more sickening spectacle than that which today attended the public execution of five Cubans. The men had been condemned to death by the garrotte as "murderers, violaters and incendiaries." Troops were drawn up in a hollow square, and in the middle were placed the chair and post. Ruiz, the public executioner, had deputized an assistant to conduct the affair. The condemned men, having received the offices of the church, were brought into the square to meet their fate. One of them had confessed his guilt and affirmed the innocence of all the others, who also protested that they were guiltless.

The first man to die took his seat in the chair calmly; the iron collar was fixed about his neck and the cap drawn over his face. Then the executioner undertook to apply the screw, but was so excited that his hand slipped repeatedly with the result that the victim died by slow strangulation, emitting the most distressing cries. The second execution was accomplished with even more distressing awkardness and delay, the executioner being almost on the verge of collapse as he performed his horrible function. The protests of the officers and priests forced Ruiz to undertake the third execution, but he did little better than his assistant had done.

The fourth victim of the bungling garrotters was likewise tortured and then Ruiz literally fled from his post, leaving his assistants to put to death the fifth of the unfortunate Cubans, who escaped none of the agonizing experiences that had attended the execution of his fellows. The whole affair has left upon those who witnessed it and upon those to whom it has been described a feeling of the utmost horror.

REED OR M'KINLEY.

Either Good Enough for New Hampshire.

Republicans of That State Adopt a Platform Favoring a High and Protective Tariff Policy.

CONCORD, N. H., March 31.—New Hampshire republicans held their state convention here today and elected delegates to the national convention at St Louis. United States Senator William E Chandler presided. Senator Chandler was greeted enthusiastically.

Senator Chandler's speech was given close attention and was frequently interrupted by applause. His mention of Thomas B. Reed as the nation's choice aroused great enthusiasm. Of the 700 entitled to seats in the convention 670 were present. But one ticket for delegates at large was presented and that bore the names of Hon. Stephen S. Jewitt, of Lacross: General Frank S Streeter, of Concord; Hon. Chas. T. Means, of Manchester, and Col. Jas. A. Wood, of Ackworth. These four candidates for delegates at large were elected by acclamation.

The platform favors a protective tariff based on the principles of the McKinley act, and the enactment of currency laws that will provide a circulating medium, in gold, silver and paper, which will always be interchangeable at its face value because of the equality and every dollar of it is of the same purchasing power as a gold dollar. In reference to choice for presidential candidate the platform says: "We recognize as most conspicuous among such candidates, New England's noble and illustrious son, the Hon. Thos. B. Reed, of Maine, and that pure and able statesman and champion of protection, the Hon. Wm. McKinley, of Ohio. We will give the electoral vote of New Hampshire to any nominee who worthily represents the party, but we prefer one of these because either is in himself a platform."

There was a slight stir in the even current of the proceedings when Col. Frank W. Rollins, of Concord, offered a substitute financial plank, identical with that adopted by the Massachusetts convention last week, as an amendment to the resolutions, but Chairman Putney, Senator Gallinger and others opposed the proposition and the amendment was lost by an overwhelming viva voce vote. The adoption of the platform as presented by the committee was made unanimous. Adjournment followed the adoption of the platform.

SETTLED AT LAST.

The New Base Ball League is a Sure Go.

Manager Meyer Receives Assurances That Everything Is Ready Now For Going Ahead.

The question of whether or not Fort Wayne is to have base ball this season seems at last to have been settled, and we are to have ball—ball that will be ball.

As stated in THE SENTINEL a meeting is to be held in Toledo tomorrow for the purpose of organizing a league to be composed of Fort Wayne, Toledo, Jackson, Saginaw, Wheeling, Youngstown, New Castle and Washington. This morning Manager Billy Meyer received a telegram from C. B. Power, of Pittsburg, who was president of the Inter-State league, which went to pieces, which said:

"There will be a meeting at Hotel Madison, Toledo, tomorrow. Jackson and Saginaw are O K."

"This means," said Mr. Meyer, to a SENTINEL reporter this morning, "that every thing is settled. We will go to Toledo tomorrow and stay there until the whole thing is completed and the schedule of games made out."

This league will be one of the strongest minor leagues in the country. All are good base ball towns and they will all put in good teams. This will mean base ball of the very best kind.

GAS EXPLOSION.

Louis Kanning's Face and Head Badly Burned.

Something Got Wrong With His Furnace and He Tried to Investigate.

Louis Kanning was badly burned yesterday by a natural gas explosion at the Kunkle safety valve works, on Barr street.

Kanning was heating a pattern in a gas fire. He left it for a short time and when he returned he found the pattern as cold as when he left it. He opened the door of the furnace to see what was wrong with the fire. As he opened the door there was a puff of fire and the flames struck him full in the face. His face, head and neck were badly scorched. His eyes were not injured.

LOCAL LINES

Theodore Walda, the well known carpenter, cut himself severely on the hand with a saw yesterday while at work.

The Spinsters' Fortnightly club will meet for rehearsal at the city Y. M. C. A. at 7:15. All members requested to be present.

The Dodier Specialty company will give an entertainment at Randall hall on the evening of April 16, for the benefit of the Ford Zouaves.

There will be a meeting of special interest to all the members of Plymouth church in the church lecture room tomorrow evening.

The members of the North Side Pedro club surprised Mr. Chas. Archer on Saturday evening, to celebrate the anniversary of his birth.

Daniel Gordon, who was operated upon at St Joseph hospital, will get well. He is cheerful, suffers no pain and has an excellent appetite.

W. H. Noyes, Lake Shore ticket agent in this city, arrived from Albion, Mich., with his bride yesterday, and they are at home for the present at No. 15 Cass street.

John Becquette has accepted a position with C. M. Lamley, of 38 Harrison street. Mr. Becquette has been employed for a number of years at the well known firm of Falk & Lamley, the wholesale liquor dealers.

The following building permits have been issued by the board of public works: William F. Snyder, two-story frame house, lot 47, Hoffman's addition, $600; John Wehrs, addition to house, lot 86, Beck's addition, $500.

The following persons who were here to attend the funeral of the late Martin Schramm have returned to their homes: Frank Schramm, Springfield, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stein, Lima, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. William B. Hymer, Chicago.

The county board of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, held an important meeting Sunday afternoon, at which State Treasurer S. J. Hannigan, of Lafayette, and Treasurer John O'Hara, of Peru, were present. The latter gentlemen returned home yesterday.

The ordinance prohibiting the throwing of glass, tin cans and other rubbish in the street is violated with impunity. Broken beer and pop bottles, iron hoops and cans are a source of much annoyance to bicyclists, who must be on the lookout constantly or have their tires punctured.

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Driver, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sunderland, of South Calhoun street, left for Marion to day. Another guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sunderland last night was J. W. Brown, of Columbia City, who is making a canvass in behalf of his candidacy for lieutenant governor.

The evangelistic services now in progress at Heidelberg Reformed church, Harrison street, near Wayne, are deepening in interest. The preaching is pointed, strong and vigorous and the gospel singing spirited. The subject for this evening is "The Wonderful Magnetism of the Gospel."

The attention of the police has been called to the fact that Calhoun street, south of Creighton avenue, is being used almost every afternoon as a race track. Some fellows who have alleged fast horses get out on that street and drive at full speed for a distance of three or four squares. The residents of the street claim it is dangerous and that they are obliged to keep their children in the house while the driving is being indulged in.

Robert L. Freeman, one of the most widely known farmers in the county, died Sunday night very suddenly at his home, near Huntertown. He had eaten supper and sat down to enjoy a chat, when suddenly he fell out of his chair to the floor and died immediately. Coroner Harrod was called out yesterday, and, assisted by Dr. Greenwell of Huntertown, made an examination. He found that death resulted from a blood clot on the brain. Mr. Freeman was fifty-two years of age and leaves a family.

COUNTY CONVENTION

Of the Allen County Sunday School Association

Held at Kendallville Friday and Saturday—Officers Elected, Etc.

The Allen County Sunday School association held its annual convention in the M. E. church at Monroeville, last Friday evening and Saturday. State Superintendent C. D. Meigs was present and presented the work throughout the state in a manner that showed that the Sunday schools in arears are full of activity. Addresses were made by County Superintendent A. D. Craig and County Missionary B. W. Hart, S. F. Bowser and others. J. W. Cromwell conducted the singing and also sang several solos. Miss Estella Steinheim, county secretary, presented an excellent report which showed that there were in Allen county 142 Sunday schools, divided among the following denominations:

The county missionary, B. W. Hart, made an excellent report which showed the great work that had been done during the year. During the year he has traveled 6,000 miles in the county, visited over 800 families and held twenty-five township conventions.

FIFTEEN ROUNDS.

Everhardt Lays Leeds Out by a Jolt on the Jaw.

MASSETH, L. I., March 31.—Jack Everhardt and Horace Leeds, light weights, fought fifteen rounds last night in the Empire Athletic club. They were scheduled to fight twenty-five rounds, but a "jolt" on the jaw laid Leeds out in the fifteenth round. The vanquished pugilist was unconscious for several hours and it was feared he would not recover. At 11:30 o'clock, however, he regained consciousness and was soon able to get up and dress himself.

TRIANGULAR AFFAIR.

Uncle Sam and John Bull Have a Grievance.

France Has Usurped Hova Contrary to Treaties With the United States and Great Britain.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—While it cannot be learned that the United States has yet joined with Great Britain in representations to France respecting the setting aside by the latter of the treaties of commerce and amity that have existed between them and the Hova government of Madagascar, it is believed that the matter is rapidly assuming a phase that will call for some action by our government. With Great Britain the United States has a treaty with the Hova government that guarantees to our citizens privileges equal to those accorded any other nation. This means, for one thing, that no greater duties shall be imposed on goods imported into Madagascar from the United States than from any other country. It is the purpose of the French government to remove this equality and reserve special privileges for French merchants, and France has notified our state department that by virtue of this assumption of control over the foreign relations of Madagascar these treaties shall fall.

If France has annexed Madagascar or made it a French colony, then our government must admit her right to abrogate the treaties in this fashion, but it is not certain that the present anomalous status of the French on the island can be regarded as sufficient to warrant the assumption of any such right, and it may be that before our government will admit, there must be some much more explicit definition of the exact scope of French authority on Madagascar, and a clear presumption of the responsibility for the government of the island. Our trade with Madagascar is quite large.

DRUNKEN HOBOS.

A Gang Get Into a Fight Among Themselves.

Detective Stoll and Officer Greer Swoop Down Upon Them and Gather Them In.

Six bums got into an altercation on Baker street at noon today, and soon were engaged in a bloody fight. They fought and chased each other down the alley to Chicago street and thence onto the Pennsylvania company's right of way. About that time Det. Stoll, the railway detective, stepped out of the waiting room at the depot and was not slow in taking in the situation. Not being able to secure police assistance, owing to the fact that it was the noon hour and the officers had gone in for dinner, the plucky detective set out for the battle ground alone, and after a struggle managed to place two of the toughs under arrest. At this opportune moment Officer Greer arrived on the scene and offered his assistance. Stoll turned the two prisoners over to him and then arrested two more of the men. The other two bums took to their heels and escaped, while the four prisoners were loaded into the patrol which had been summoned, and carted down to the calaboose.

They were too drunk to give their names at the police station. One of the bums was just released from jail a day or two ago.

CAPTURED THE BOYS.

Mrs Owen Farnan, of Lakeside, reported to the police yeaterday that her six young sons had run away from school and she wanted them captured and returned home. Humane Officer Schlandroff started to hunt for the lads and in the afternoon found two of them on their way to the river with fish poles in their hands. He chased them, but the oldest boy eluded him. Frankie, the youngest, who is eight years old, plunged into Spy Run, which is now a stream of considerable size and would no doubt have drowned, had not Park Superintendent Boswell gone in and fished him out. Frankie was then locked up in the police station and kept there for several hours, after which he was released and taken home. He was given a good, sound lecture and promised solemnly that he would go to school every day in the future. The other boys turned up at home at meet time. The next time they play truant they will receive the attention of the law.

TO SELL TWO GUNS

Albert Gesler, a butcher employed at Eckart's establishment, found two revolvers and a cartridge box in the yard of Prof. Gerberding, on the corner of Jefferson and Barr streets, while he was passing the place at 5 o'clock Sunday morning. He notified the police and Officer Elliott went to the place and took charge of the weapons. He also found forty-one cartridges on the ground. It is supposed they were thrown there by a pair of burglars who feared being captured with the weapons in their possession.

WHERE IS BUTLER?

He is Said to be Mysteriously Missing.

Left Home Last Wednesday and Has Not Been Heard of Since.

A. Butler, who for a number of years has purchased country produce on the streets, is said to be missing from his usual haunts and the family is sorely distressed over his mysterious absence. He left home in his usual spirits last Wednesday morning, and diligent inquiry has failed to produce any one who has seen or heard of him since. Mr. Butler is about fifty-five years old, five feet ten inches in height and weighed about 180 pounds. He resides at the corner of Edgerton avenue and Winter street, where a wife and three children are now anxiously awaiting his return.

Mrs. J. M. Henry will entertain, at her home to-morrow afternoon, the members of the H. F. F. club.

Mrs. T. A. Tyler will entertain the Ladies' society of Beaver Chapel on Thursday afternoon, at her home.

The runaway team, reported in yesterday's paper, did not belong to Henry Kammeyer, but to his son in law, Chas. Wiese, of Cor Creek. Nothing was broken.

The Morning Musical held an extra session this morning at the home of Mrs. T. E. Ellison. The board of directors called this meeting of the active members to arrange for meeting a want felt by the active membership. Owing to the club's rapid growth many members are practically strangers and feel a hesitancy in doing program work. The plan of the directors for extra meetings of the active members on alternate Fridays was heartily approved by the large number present.

NEW YORK, March 31.—Word has been received from Manchester, Vermont, of the death of ex-Mayor Orestes Cleveland, of Jersey City.

TRIED IT AGAIN.

Jessie Peoples Comes Near Taking Her Life.

Her Second Attempt—This Time She Swallowed Laudanum—Threatens Further Attempts.

It will be remembered that THE SENTINEL a few days ago told about Josie Peoples making an attempt to commit suicide. Jessie is the girl who roomed over Harry Gilbert's saloon, on Calhoun street, and tried to kill herself because, she said, Gilbert had made love to her and then gave her the mashie heart. She said she had nothing left to live for.

A few days later she and her mother moved from these rooms to No 16 Chicago street. She had been very quiet since then and yesterday Mrs. Peoples left Jessie alone for a short time while she went down street. When Jessie's life was saved by Dr. Kappel the other time she vowed she would yet kill herself, and no sooner was she alone yesterday than she made the second attempt. She went out and bought a quantity of laudanum at a drug store. She then went to the back room of Pete Creigh's saloon, No. 12 Chicago street. She swallowed the laudanum and washed it down with a drink of whisky. Soon she became unconscious and when a female acquaintance entered the room at 7 o'clock last night and found her Jessie was about dead.

Dr. Kappel was again summoned. When he arrived the girl showed no sign of life except the faintest breathing. The doctor went to work at her and after several hours' hard work he brought the girl to consciousness. She immediately began to lament the fact that she had not been allowed to die, and said she would make a sure job of it next time.

It is thought that Miss Peoples is a little bit cracked on the subject of suicide and there is some talk of having her mental condition inquired into.

B. P. W. MEETS.

Remonstrance Against Paving Montgomery Street.

Allen Street Will Not be Paved Just Yet—Bids Opened for the New Fountains.

At the meeting of the board of public works yesterday afternoon the following bids for the construction of the five new drinking fountains were opened: J. W. Bookwalter, $325; F. J. Zumerly, $397. Savey Hardware company, $310. The bids were taken under advisement and the designs for the fountains will be investigated.

Montgomery Hamilton filed a remonstrance against the paving of Montgomery street. The board also decided to not pave Allen street until it can be paved from Calhoun to Lafayette street.

A sewer builders' license was granted to T. B. Empie.

A resolution was passed declaring vacant the alley between Calhoun and Clinton streets, from Railroad street to Chestnut street.

William Genke was granted permission to build by private contract a sewer on Pearl street, to connect with the Griffith street sewer, in order that he may have an outlet for the washings from his stone sawing machines.

The appointment of April 10 as the date for hearing remonstrances against the proposed paving of Montgomery street will give those "for" and "against" an opportunity to make themselves heard.

GYMNASIUM TOURNAMENT.

The Y. M. C. A. Preparing for Its Annual Exhibition.

For several weeks past Professor Lovelle, the physical director of the City Y. M. C. A., has been hard at work with his classes preparing for the fourth annual gymnastic tournament, which will be held at the Masonic Temple Monday, April 6. The exhibition this year bids fair to eclipse all former efforts in this direction. A program of exceptional merit has been prepared, which includes every phase of gymnasium work. The specialties, including the parallel bars, vaulting horse, horizontal bar and the tumbling will be in charge of a specially selected class of ten experts, whose work is of a high order. A feature that will be both novel and interesting will be the third part of the program, when two young athletes, selected for their splendid physical development, will give a series of classic statuary poses. This work will be done in white costumes against a black background, with colored lights, and will without doubt prove of a very pleasing nature.

QUICK TIME DIVORCE.

Viola Woodward Separated From Her Husband.

Superior Court Jury Selected—The Verdict in the Robinson Case—Criminal Cases.

In the superior court this morning Attorney Chas. A. Hays filed a petition asking that his client, Viola Woodward, be given a divorce from her husband, Clyde Woodward. The defendant acknowledged the service of summons and the case was at once called up for hearing before Judge Dawson. The plaintiff was put on the stand and testified to the habitual drunkenness, cruel treatment, failure to provide of the defendant. The defendant was then questioned by the judge but refused to answer. Turning to the court bailiff Judge Dawson said: "Bailiff take this man to jail until he consents to answer the questions."

"Oh, I'll answer them," interposed the defendant immediately, and then he acknowledged the truth of some of the allegations and consented to the granting of the divorce.

Judge Dawson granted the plaintiff a divorce from the defendant.

CRIMINAL CASES.

Frank Scudderett was on trial in the circuit court room today for burglary. He was given thirty days in jail by the jury verdict.

Frank Thompson was sent to jail for sixty days for burglarizing the place of Frank Lordier.

SUIT WAS A FORGERY.

The jury in the case of Martha Sled, the wife of Dr. Sled, against James V. Robinson, administrator of the estate of W. S. Robinson, deceased, which has been on trial in the circuit court during the last few days, was decided yesterday afternoon by the jury returning a verdict in favor of the defendant.

The suit was brought on a promissory note of $1,000 given to Dr. Samuel D. Sled to secure a loan of that amount made to Jacob Carey Robinson and supposed to be signed by W. S. Robinson and his son, Jacob Carey Robinson. The jury found that the name of W. S Robinson was a forgery, and for that reason his estate was not held liable for its payment, the forgery having been committed by James Carey Robinson, who is now a fugitive from justice.

One of the sensational features of the trial was the evidence of Mrs. Robinson, the wife of the forger of the note, James Carey Robinson. She testified that she had seen the father, W. S. Robinson, sign the note in dispute and that he had done so at the request of her husband. She also testified that he had signed other notes which juries have since pronounced to be forgeries. The jury, however, disbelieved her testimony and found that the name of the father to the note sued on was a forgery and had been written there by the son, James Carey Robinson, and hence the estate of W. S. Robinson was not held liable for its payment.

Mrs. Robinson while on the witness stand was asked to divulge the whereabouts of her husband, but, on the advice of her attorney, Judge Heuch, refused to answer the question. There are several notes for large amounts to which the name of W. S. Robinson has been forged and on which the son has secured loans and afterwards skipped out for parts unknown.

In the case just decided Zollars & Worden represented the plaintiffs and Judge W. G. and Will Colerick the defendant.

BEVERLIN CASE APPEALED.

The case of the state against Fred Beverlin has been taken on appeal from the circuit to the supreme court on alleged error. Beverlin, it will be remembered, was convicted of having forged the name of Jacob Schaefenacher to a note of $75 and sold it to A. H. Bittenger. He was sentenced to a term of two years in the penitentiary and is now at Michigan City. His attorneys were Breen & Morris.

One of the grounds for error is that the court allowed the testimony of the prisoner's wife to go to the jury, it being contended that it was improper evidence because of the relation between the witness and the prisoner. She testified that Beverlin had forced her, by threats that he would kill her, to sign the name of Schaefenacher to the note, and that she had done so because she was afraid of him. She has since obtained a divorce from the prisoner.

One of the defenses made by the defendant's attorneys was that Beverlin was insane. The jury, however, found him to be sane, and adjudged him guilty of the crime of forgery.

Now for a Busy Year.

The coldest and most uncomfortable March we have experienced in years closes its record to day, but with its close it has brought beautiful weather, and the month which was ushered in like a roaring lion will go out like a gentle lamb, thus verifying the old proverb. The effect of the cool weather during the month upon spring business has been depressing. People do not go out to buy spring goods while compelled to wear the heaviest winter wraps. March has been a spring month only in name, and the profitable spring trade which our merchants hope for is still in the future. There comes an end to all things, and the end of a cold stormy March is at hand.

The net result of the backward spring will be that the spring trade will have to be done in a shorter season than usual. This means that the next two months are to be unusually busy ones. If Fort Wayne's prosperous spring season has been retarded a little by the weather it will be all the more prosperous from now on. The new spring suits for every member of every household will be wanted all the same, even if the winter suits have done duty for an extra month. Houses and rooms must be refurnished to suit summer needs, and every branch of our domestic and business life will draw upon new supplies to take the place of the outworn.

Fort Wayne was never so well prepared to do an unexampled year's business as now, and we trust for the benefit of our merchants, our manufacturers and our people generally that the busy hum of trade and industry will begin and continue throughout the year. The only obstacle in sight to a year of great prosperity is the presidential canvass with its uncertainties and its tendency to make business men timid and over cautious. But business men themselves can do much to minimize this retarding influence, if in every branch of trade and industry they will face the future with confidence and thus infuse confidence and activity into the business of the year. The outlook for trade is good, the facilities for doing business were never so complete, the country is growing in population and wealth, and the month of April upon which we are about to enter should be the busiest April this city and the entire country have ever known.

The Reason of It.

THE FORT WAYNE SENTINEL says that Will Ryan is "the saloon candidate" for senator from Allen and Whitley counties, and that Bobilya is "all right." All will remember that during the time the Nicholson bill was pending in the legislature Mr. Bobilya was one of its fiercest antagonists. He fought it at every stage and his vote was recorded against it on final passage. Now THE SENTINEL quotes him as an excellent and loyal supporter of that measure. Funny, ain't it? It would be interesting if THE SENTINEL would explain how it reconciles Mr. Bobilya's record with its present assertions.—Morning Gazette.

Yes, we are always very glad to give the reasons for assertions that we make, and hence we will answer the above editorial in the Gazette. Our authority for speaking of Mr. Ryan as "the saloon candidate" is the latter's own statement made at the Fifth ward polls last Saturday afternoon, in the presence of a SENTINEL representative and others, while the primaries were in progress, and in answer to a voter's question. The reason why we claim Mr. Bobilya is for the Nicholson law is because he told a SENTINEL representative so and said, in an interview which we published in THE SENTINEL that he would vote against the repeal of the Nicholson law, if he was a member of the next Indiana senate, should that question come up at the session for determination. The past and the present attitude of Mr. Bobilya towards the Nicholson law were fully explained in the interview published in the SENTINEL several days ago. He believes since it has become a law that the Nicholson bill is proving beneficial in its workings and that the majority of the people of the counties of this senatorial district are satisfied to have it continue in force.

HARRISON'S WEDDING.

The General Starts for the Scene of the Nuptials.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 31. — General Harrison, his private secretary, and Dan Ransdell, ex marshal of the District of Columbia, left this afternoon at 2:45 o'clock for New York, where General Harrison will, next Monday, be married to Mrs Dimmick. The party will go via Pittsburg over the Pan Handle route. General Harrison is in better health and spirits than he has been since his first campaign. The Harrison party will arrive in New York tomorrow afternoon.

Lem R. Hartman, cashier of the First National bank, returned yesterday from Richmond, where, with Mrs. Hartman, he has been attending the Methodist conference as a lay delegate from the Wayne street church.

If you could look ahead a few months and see what was coming from those spells of weakness, loss of appetite, wasting of flesh and energy, you wouldn't wait for disease to get a grip on you. You would begin right away to tone up your constitution with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It doesn't work miracles; but it does what other medicine can't do and what doctors say can't be done—unless they see it done right under their noses—it cures consumption. Not always; to say that would be an exaggeration, but in a large majority of cases; in advanced cases which have been given up as hopeless.

The "Discovery" is not called a consumption cure; it is a blood-maker. It gives energy to the blood making organs to create new blood, full of healthy red corpuscles. This rapid supply of pure, rich, red blood drives out all diseases that have their roots in the blood. Consumption is one of these; scrofula, malaria, eczema, erysipelas, catarrh are others. It is absurd to doctor them separately as lung, or skin, or head diseases. They must be driven out of the blood. You can rely on the "Golden Medical Discovery" to do this every time.

It is not a patent medicine. It is the perfected result of 30 years' practical experience by one of the most skillful physicians and eminent medical authorities in this country: Dr. R. V. Pierce, Chief Consulting Physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's 1000 page book, "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," reached the enormous sale of 680,000 copies at $1.50 each. This enormous sale having paid him a fair profit on the great amount of labor and money expended in producing it, he is now giving away absolutely free, 680,000 copies, the recipient only being required to mail him at the above institution 21 one cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, and the book will be sent post paid.

LIGHT OUT OF DARKNESS

By Mrs. HENRY WARD BEECHER.

CHAPTER XII.

And now there came frequent tidings of one battle after another, but always followed speedily by telegrams from Rose to assure the anxious home friends that, although the first in the conflict and the last to leave the field, her brothers thus far had been mercifully preserved unharmed. Dunbar's horse had once been shot under him, but he escaped without injury. His brave men, however, had suffered terribly. More than 20 of George's gallant 160 had fallen, and 12 more were now in the hospital, watched over by their gallant captain's sister with a tenderness and hearty sympathy that made her like an angel in their midst.

Then came another pause, during which the regiments had leisure to fill up their broken ranks, recruit their exhausted strength and restore order again in their camps. But it was only the quiet of the tempest while it gathers force to burst again upon the earth with fury and desolation.

Our friends at the farm had enjoyed one of those quiet, delightful Sabbaths that July sometimes bestows after a severe thunder-storm. Toward evening all were on the veranda watching the shadows falling over the clover fields, while the sun edged the grand old hills with fire as he slowly sunk to rest behind the dark mountains that overlooked the placid lake.

Just then a horse's hoofs were heard, and the next moment a horse and rider were seen rapidly approaching the house. It was an uncommon occurrence on the Sabbath, and every face betokened alarm. As the rider halted at the steps Mr. Newton rose and received a dispatch. The boy lingered one moment and then rode quickly away. To how many does the sight of a telegram bring fear and forebodings of evil, even when from business necessities they are of frequent occurrence, and how one not accustomed to receiving them shrinks from the first glance of the contents! Thus stood Mr. Newton, while every eye turned anxiously toward him. His own face was very pale and his hand trembled when at last he opened it. As his eyes took in the message a heavy groan burst from his lips, but he instantly controlled himself as his wife and daughter exclaimed:

"Oh, my boys!" "My husband!"

"Be brave, my dear ones. It is from Rose. A fearful battle at Bull Run. We are shamefully beaten. Eustace slightly wounded, but George and Ralph are missing. Come—come to me quickly!"

Ah, was not this a bitter cup? How will they bear it? The noble father, the tender mother, the loving bride and sister and the dear younger brother! Their faith and trust in God must be strong indeed to carry them safely through these deep waters!

Lillian was the first to speak.

"We must go at once, dear father. Eustace will be well cared for, but Rose needs counsel and support immediately."

A guard was placed over him.

"Yes, my darling. But there is no train that we can reach till early Monday morning.

"My dear wife, you are not well. I dread this rapid and exciting journey for you. Will you not remain at home, leaving Lillian and myself to do what we can for our children, yet keeping you informed by daily telegrams?"

In the early morning Alfred returned.

"Good news. I telegraphed to Rose as soon as I reached the city and received this answer not 10 minutes before I was obliged to leave," handing the dispatch to his father.

"George safe with us. Eustace doing well, but Ralph is a prisoner. Let Alfred come with Lillian. Father and mother can do nothing toward Ralph's release."

Great was the joy at this release from part of their fears, but it was with difficulty that the mother could be persuaded to relinquish the idea of going herself. She at last consented on one condition—that her husband should accompany Lillian, leaving Alfred to supply his father's place at home.

Mr. Newton and his daughter reached the camp without any delay, sending back by the magic wires an immediate report of their safe arrival and the comfort their presence gave the anxious children.

At noon the next day came the following:

"Ralph is safely with us. Expect a letter the next mail."

The letter came in due time, as follows:

"Dunbar's wound in the left arm, from a bayonet thrust, was slight, and would not have kept him from his work a day, but at the same time he was knocked from his horse, rescued by his men and carried from the field.

"George and Ralph have been wonderfully preserved. Their regiment was among the most fearless and daring."

In a letter to his wife Mr. Newton thus describes how Ralph appeared in the Union lines:

"Yesterday afternoon as we were seated in Eustace's tent a loud shout from his men outside brought us all upon the ground. Great excitement was manifested by all, and repeated cheers from the front sounded strangely out of place where all but a moment before had been quiet, moody or despondent. As the men saw the colonel leave his tent they made way for us to pass toward the front, and in the distance we saw that a horseman riding furiously was the occasion of the excitement. The instant Dunbar espied him he exclaimed: 'Look! Surely I cannot be mistaken. That is Prince, but such a uniform—who can the rider be?' It was their colonel's well known horse the men had cheered so heartily, but they now stood anxiously waiting for a nearer approach to recognize the rider.

"It was but a moment's suspense before, without checking his headlong speed, he stripped the rebel coat from his shoulders, threw it from him and raising the cap from his head tossed it high in the air to fall in the ditch beyond, with a full, joyous 'Hurrah!' which was answered by the most deafening cheers. We all recognized that voice. Rose sprang forward, crying 'Ralph! Ralph! my darling brother!' as he dashed into our midst flung himself from the panting horse and clasped her in his arms."

The letter still further explained that on the first night of Ralph's capture those who had charge of the prisoners encamped in a wood not many miles from Bull Run, being unable to proceed farther and confident that our army had been too greatly dispirited to rally sufficiently to regain what they had so needlessly lost. From the first Ralph was determined to escape before he reached their prison house. A guard was placed over him, who abused and insulted him in the most heartless and unnatural manner. He assumed meanwhile a weary, dispirited manner, and at last appeared to sink into the heavy sleep of great exhaustion. This after a time relaxed their vigilance, and they yielded to fatigue and whisky, which soon completely overpowered them.

When all was quiet and deep sleep settled down upon the captors, slowly and painfully, stiff from many blows and bruises, Ralph succeeded in dragging himself clear of the slumbering guards, passing one who had thrown cap and overcoat near where he lay in his drunken stupor. It took but a moment to disguise himself in a rebel's uniform, and greatly rejoicing to find a loaded revolver in the pocket silently passed beyond the guarded tent. Then the rash boy, remembering that he had seen a number of captured horses fastened near by as he marched to the prison tent and sure that he recognized Eustace's horse among them, delayed till he could judge by his ear of the position, then crept skillfully among the trees to the spot where they were tethered. Prince's low, welcoming whinny revealed him before Ralph, by the fitful moonlight, could be sure of his exact locality. Instantly unfastening the halter he sprang into the saddle, which remained as the master had fallen from it, and dashed fearlessly away.

Evidently the sentry was half asleep or had not distinguished the little noise he made from the stamping and restlessness of so many weary and unfed horses around him, but leaving the swamp where they were tied and passing, as he must, the tents a guard sprang forward, presenting his musket, and demanded the countersign. Not daring to use his pistol lest he should too soon rouse the sleepers within, the only answer he returned was a well directed blow, which staggered the man, giving Prince freedom to rush forward. The sentinel recovered himself immediately and fired, but with an unsteady hand. It was sufficient, however, to rouse the men, and in a few minutes he could hear the confused and fierce call to arms. Many random shots were fired, but the good steed carried the brave boy gallantly, and he was soon beyond their pursuit.

Early in the morning after this dark and perilous ride Ralph once ventured to halt at a house by the wayside and ask for a piece of bread and a cup of milk, which were given him, whether out of respect for his borrowed uniform or from a kindly heart he could not judge, and twice he stopped to give the faithful Prince a good feed of grass and draft of pure water. When at last the camp with Eustace's regimental colors flying opened on his sight, it was the happiest moment of his life.

Twice had Dunbar in the midst of a furious assault been brought face to face with Grenville. The first was but a passing glance as in the rush of battle they swept past each other. The last was only a few moments before Eustace's fall. A rebel aimed full at him while giving an order, but in a moment a cavalry officer dashed to the soldier's side, threw up his arm by a quick movement of his sword, as if by accident, and with a sad look raised his cap to Eustace and wheeled off in an opposite direction. That officer was Jasper Grenville. Ralph had also seen him, and burning with indignation, guided only by the impulse of the moment, endeavored to reach him and in that rash attempt was surrounded and taken a prisoner.

Mr. Newton and his daughter returned to the farm, and time sped on, bringing weekly reports from absent ones and meting out full measures of quiet enjoyment for those at home, crowning their toil with great success and more than the hoped for remuneration. The harvest had been carefully garnered, and the sales were rapid. The family were beginning to look forward to the winter as a period of less severe toil, bringing leisure for much reading, and, of more value than all else, a reasonable hope that their children might be able to secure a few days for home, as the slow and seemingly sluggish efforts of the various corps and divisions to recruit would indicate there was little expectation of active service during the winter.

One cold and snowy evening the family were gathered around the cheerful fire, when without a word of warning Rose and Ralph walked in and were clasped in their parents' arms. Some minutes of joyful greeting and glad surprise passed before Lillian could gain an answer to her inquiries after her husband. Then she learned that neither Eustace nor George could be spared, as their regiment was ordered to join the army at Vicksburg, with 10 days for preparation. The brothers had urged Ralph to obtain a like furlough and accompany his sister on this visit, bearing their loving greetings, while they tarried behind to expedite arrangements.

A real home supper was prepared for the beloved guests, and while seated at the familiar board all care and anxiety was dismissed from their minds. If Lillian's heart yearned for her husband's presence and the parents missed George's thoughtful attentions, it was carefully concealed during this meal. Once more gathered in the cheerful parlors, questions flowed continually, but not so absorbingly as to prevent the parents from giving Rose's looks and words careful attention. They were soon satisfied that no corroding sorrow was preying upon their darling's peace. True, she was in many respects greatly changed. The strange, sad experience of her hospital life had given a maturity of thought and expression that was singularly contrasted with her bright, girlish face and figure. Years of home life could never have developed the strength and enthusiasm of her character as the last two months had done.

The bond between herself and twin brother was even stronger than when in their home life. No shadow of concealment ever came between them, and without words they seemed to understand each other's hearts instinctively.

When it was time to retire, Rose said, "Stay a moment longer, please. I have a few words to say before retiring.

"I know, my dear parents, you have had much anxiety on my account and many fears that I might not be able to rise above the cruel disappointment that came so suddenly upon me. I do not pretend that I have not suffered very bitterly. But it was the pain of misplaced confidence, the knowledge that what I had thought a priceless treasure was worse than dross, a thing to loathe and scorn. It takes time to banish regrets for such impoverishment, but the love so unutterably squandered can never be renewed. From the hour that Jasper Grenville joined himself to traitors against his country his power over me ceased. He is now a prisoner, taken by a scouting party in the rash attempt to obtain a clandestine interview with me. I am thankful that it did not fall to my brothers to capture him, but it is well that his efforts against our country are ended, at least for the present.

"Lillian, my sister, you look at me in sad surprise that I speak of him so coldly. You think me hard and unfeeling."

"Ah, no, Rosie! But I cannot understand how a love so strong as yours was can be so totally annihilated, even if the object prove, as Grenville has, utterly unworthy."

"Ah, dear sister! If this had been of the common order of sin or worthlessness, there might have lingered some shades of tenderness, but for the son who would trample upon his mother, the traitor who would betray and destroy his country, there can exist no feeling but entire indifference. Yes—a stronger one than that—detestation."

"And what," interrupted Ralph, "do you imagine that Grenville hoped to gain by a disguised entrance into my sister's presence? Why, to persuade her to leave us and allow the first rebel chaplain to marry them and then convey her to his southern home! Or, if she thought that was asking too much, to secure her promise to be his when the south had subdued us."

"How did you learn this?" asked his father in amazement.

BAD STATE OF AFFAIRS.

Fifteen Hundred Men Out of Employment.

A Disagreement Between Employer and Employe Results in the Closing of the Works.

COLUMBUS, Ga., March 31.—The closing down of the two great Eagle and Phoenix cotton mills last night for an indefinite period, and the consequent throwing of over 1,500 people out of employment has produced a serious situation here. The strikers are orderly and quiet. Efforts are being made by business men looking to an immediate settlement of the strike.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction, she was brought down with pneumonia, succeeding la grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Dreier & Bro.'s Drug Store. Regular size, 50c and $1.00.

THE DR. J. H. MCLEAN MEDICINE CO.,

St. Louis, Mo.

GENTLEMEN: For about ten years I suffered with a pain in my back which I thought was caused by a strain. Sometimes it got so bad I could not stand upright or ride in my buggy. I read in your almanac of symptoms that I recognized as my own, which led me to the conclusion that my trouble was disease in the kidneys. I immediately began using

DR. J. H. McLEAN'S LIVER AND KIDNEY BALM.

It proved to be the right medicine and reached the spot. I soon lost all pain and have better health than ever before. It is more than a year now since I quit using it and have not had a pain or sick day in all that time. It is certainly a wonderful medicine for the kidneys.

KIRK'S

Eos (Elixir of Soap.)

Creates a Great Sensation.

The Office of "The Sentinel" Crowded With People Anxious to Obtain a Free Sample of This Marvelous Discovery.

Clerks Kept Busy All Day Handing Out Samples and Answering Questions.

Free Distribution Continued Today From 9 a. m. Until 5 p. m.—This Is Your Last Opportunity to Obtain a Free Sample.

That the people of Fort Wayne and vicinity appreciate the enterprise displayed by THE SENTINEL was thoroughly proven by the throng that crowded their office yesterday for a free sample of Jas S. Kirk & Co's latest discovery, Eos (Elixir of Soap)

Everywhere people could be heard discussing Kirk's new preparation, which from this time forth means an entire change in doing all laundry work

Think of it! from now on no soap is required to do the family washing when Eos (the Elixir of Soap) is used.

Eos (the Elixir of Soap) is the product and discovery of fifty six years of successful soap making. No discovery in recent years of any preparation for laundry use and general washing has created the sensation and enthusiasm that Eos has.

It may be justly termed the great revolutionizer for all washing purposes, for both the laundry and the toilet.

Among the claims made for Eos, which Messrs. James S. Kirk & Co. stand prepared to prove, are the following:

That it will soften the hardest water; it will keep blueing from curdling in the water.

Flannels and woolens washed with this most valuable preparation will positively not shrink; for the bath or toilet it is indispensable, making the water soft and velvety, giving the skin a healthy glow, and removing any superfluous excretion that may adhere to the body.

For dishes and general washing purposes it is very essential as it saves both labor and the soap usually required.

This preparation must not be confounded with the ordinary soap powders, for while no soap is required when Eos is used, it contains no lye, ammonia, borax, lime, or any deleterious ingredients. It is essential that all consumers of soap must eventually use it.

It is for the baby's flannels and woolens; it acts as a strong antiseptic for invalid's flannels, woolens and linens.

Eos saves 100 per cent of soap, which means that absolutely no soap is required when Eos is used, and also saves 60 per cent. of labor.

Remember the free distribution of samples ends at Subsequently he was in Aberdeen, Wash Then he went back to Blakeley, but in the spring of 1893 went to Everett and started a laundry. It was not a success. He came to Seattle the last of June or the first of July, 1893, and stayed with Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Jones, old friends. He left their house at 2 p. m. A RELIC OF THE PAST,

Surgical Operations for the Cure of Piles and Rectal Diseases

NO LONGER NECESSARY.

A Medical Discovery Which Will Change the Treatment of All Such Diseases.

It has long been thought not only by some physicians but by the people in general that the common, painful and exceedingly annoying trouble, piles, was practically incurable by any other means than a surgical operation, and this belief has been the cause of years of needless suffering, because of the natural dread of surgical operations.

There are many salves, ointments and similar remedies on the market which afford some relief in cases of piles, but the Pyramid Pile Cure is the only preparation so far introduced that can be reliably depended upon to cure to stay cured, every form of itching, bleeding or protruding piles.

Mrs. M. C. Buckley of 601 Mississippi St., Indianapolis, was told by her physicians that nothing but a surgical operation costing between seven and eight hundred dollars could cure her as she had suffered for 15 years; yet even in such a case as hers the Pyramid Pile Cure accomplished a complete cure. She says: "I knew an operation would be death to me and tried the Pyramid with very little hope and it is not to be wondered at that I am so enthusiastic in its praise."

Major Dean of Columbus, Ohio, says he suffered for 40 years from piles and 20 years from itching piles and in his case two packages of the Pyramid cured him.

Mr. D. E. Reed of South Lyons, Mich., says I would not take $500 and be placed back where I was before I used the Pyramid Pile Cure. I suffered for years and it is now eighteen months since I used it and not the slightest trace of the trouble has returned.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by nearly all druggists at 50 cents and $1 per package and as it contains no opium, cocaine or other poisonous drug can be used with perfect safety.

No one need suffer from piles in any form who will give this excellent remedy a trial. Made by the Pyramid Co., Albion, Mich. Any druggist can get it for you.

BOTH CLAIM VICTORY.

Watson-Johnson Congressional Contest Ends Tomorrow.

In Waging With Intense Bitterness—A New Move on the Indiana Apportionment.

INDIANAPOLIS Ind., March 31.—The contest between Congressmen Johnson and Watson in the Sixth district has assumed proportions that have rarely been attained in a contest for office in Indiana. The Watson men are confident and very aggressive and are claiming Henry county, which will decide by primary vote tomorrow, by a heavy majority, while the Johnson men are claiming it by from 200 to 300 votes.

At the little town of Cadiz the Christian church was thrown open to Johnson last week and he spoke from the pulpit. When Watson asked for a similar favor it was denied him. The Methodists at once threw their church open to him, and now the two flocks are at war with each other. Watson is a Methodist, and it is claimed by his friends that the Christian church was refused him because of his faith.

Women are electioneering and are seen upon the street day and night arguing for their favorite. Owing to the intense feeling some of the merchants have lost their best customers and boycotts have been started and are being actively carried on by the Johnson men against Watson's friends who are in business and by the Watson men against Johnson.

The final rally of the campaign took place to-day at New Castle, and Johnson and Watson are both present and made speeches from different platforms and in different parts of the city. Excursion trains were run from all parts of the district. There is much uneasiness on account of the excited conditions that prevail and many of the leading republicans fear trouble.

The democrats of Hammond held their city convention last night and ratified the ward nominations made Saturday evening and also nominated Robert Gregory as a candidate for city judge.

NEW MOVE ON APPORTIONMENT.

Lewis Wallace, jr., has filed an intervening petition in the case of William Denny and others against the state, on relation of Fred Boolet, decided by the supreme court sixty days ago with the result that the apportionment acts of 1881 and 1885 were declared unconstitutional. The petition avers that the recent decision related to only isolated statutes and not to the whole cause, which he now wishes to present. He pleads that that decision establishes a precedent whereby the Hamilton county court, in the apportionment suit now pending, must declare all apportionment acts unconstitutional and that the prospects point to the nonexistence of a legislature, which will be in violation of the state's compact with the United States.

Mr. Wallace asks the supreme court to decide which law is valid, so that the legislature may be chosen thereby. He pleads that the reception of his petition will end all litigation relative to the apportionment, much to the advantage of the electors of the state. The petitioner also sets out at length what are alleged to be faults in the ruling of the supreme court. He avers that he has no interest either in the prosecution or defense of the suit now pending in Hamilton county or elsewhere, and that he is acting independently and in his capacity as an elector, without relation to any particular interest.

The petition has occasioned surprise in political circles. The democrats believe that Wallace's petition is presented to forestall action on the motion to dismiss the case.

Missionaries Not Molested.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 31.—In consequence of the urgent representations of the British embassador, Sir Philip Currie, and the United States charge d'affaires, Mr. John W. Riddley, the Porte has furnished written assurances that the missionaries in Anatolia will not be molested in the work of distributing relief, on condition that an Ottoman official is permitted to assist in the distribution of the funds, etc.

SITUATION DARKER.

The Matabelo Outbreak Assumes a Serious Aspect.

The Whole Country About Buluwayo is in a State of Open Insurrection.

CAPE TOWN March 31.—It is difficult to obtain accurate information regarding the progress of the rebellion of the natives of Matabelland. The authorities naturally are withholding all the information possible, as there is no doubt that it would be made use of by the enemies of British rule in South Africa. It is not denied, however, that the situation becomes darker every day and that a very strong force of men will be necessary to restore order.

The whole of the country outside of a radius of about twelve miles around Buluwayo is in a state of open insurrection and the Matabeles and natives are flocking to the Matopo hills, where the son of the late King Lobengula is said to have been raised to his father's rank with much ceremony, preparatory to taking command of the army of insurgent natives flocking to the hills from all parts.

The general opinion expressed here is that the charter companies and the British forces now present greatly underestimate the serious state of affairs which prevails here. This seems to be especially the case with the British government and it would seem that the latter must be intentionally or unintentionally misled by the chartered company's officials or by others.

PASTORS RETURNED.

Dr. H. W. Bennett, Rev. C. C. Cissell and Rev. Paschall.

Changes Made at Trinity and St. Paul M. E. Churches—Close of the Conference.

RICHMOND, Ind., March 31.—The north Indiana conference of the Methodist Episcopal church won the hearts of the ladies yesterday in a wholesouled manner. The question of admitting women to the general conference, both from the lay and ministerial conferences, came up, and the conference voted in favor of the proposition unanimously. The question was not even discussed, so much agreed were all the members on the question. The conference also voted in favor of an amendment by which the general conference shall not allow more than one ministerial representative for every fourteen members of an annual conference, nor a less number than one for sixty five. The purpose of this is to reduce the membership of the general conference.

The cabinet, which has been in session during the conference, made the announcement of the assignment of ministers to their charges for the ensuing year today. These are usually made on Monday morning, but the work of the conference was somewhat delayed this year and they were not made until today. The appointments of interest to Fort Wayne are as follows:

Presiding Elder of Fort Wayne District—Rev. F. T. Simpson.

Pastor, Wayne Street Church—Rev. Dr. H. W. Bennett.

Pastor, Berry Street Church—Rev. C. C. Cissell.

Pastor, Simpson Church—Rev. J. W. Paschall.

Pastor, Trinity Church—Rev. E. F. Alberson.

Pastor, St. Paul Church—Rev. M. C. Cooper.

The selection of Rev. Simpson, Dr. Bennett, Rev. Cissell and Rev. Paschall are reappointments to the positions they have been filling. Rev. Cooper was at Fort Wayne a few years ago, but has been since filling an appointment in Illinois. He is a young minister of ability.

Rev. H. M. Johnson, formerly of the Trinity church at Fort Wayne, is sent to Fairmount, and Rev. J. M. Stewart, formerly of St. Paul, is sent to Marion.

Dr. Driver is returned to Marion, Dr. Eldridge to Anderson, and Rev. Lamport goes to Goshen.

Kokomo was selected as the place for holding the next session of the conference. The name of Fort Wayne was not presented as a contestant. There were but two places presented—Kokomo and Hartford City—and a rising vote showed 83 for Kokomo and 86 for Hartford City.

The resolutions against popular amusements were quite stringent and opposed the general conference abolishing the blacklist, which contains the names of those violating the rules of the church along the line.

An attempt was made to get through a memorial to the general conference to change the ritual of the church so as not to express baptismal regeneration, in which the denomination does not believe; also to change the expression, "holy catholic church." After a heated discussion the memorial was killed, being considered too radical in its scope.

The report from the American Bible society showed that in the sixty years it has existed it has printed and largely circulated more than 51,000,000 copies of the Bible. They are sold at cost, and given to those not able to buy. These Bibles are printed in 242 languages.

The following trustees of De Pauw university were elected: Rev. C. C. Hudson, Bikhart; Hugh Dougherty, Bluffton; Rev. M. B. Mendenhall, Union City, and J. T. Elliot, Logansport. The plan of the American university, at Washington City, was approved.

The committee on freedmen's aid and southern education reported that the society now has forty five institutions of learning, twenty-two of them devoted to the Christian education of the American negro, of whom 4,851 were in attendance the past two years; twenty-two of the schools are for poor white people of the south, of whom 2,278 were in attendance the same year. Three institutions are sending out converted young men and women.

The society owns $2,000,000 worth of real estate, and has sole charge of the religious education of 547 communicants living in the territory covered by thirty five conferences. Marvelous results have been obtained. This conference appropriated $2,982 to assist the work.

Distribution of Seeds.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Secretary Morton has let the contract for the 10,000,000 packets of vegetable seeds to be distributed to the public, under the recent act of congress to D. Landreth & Sons, of Philadelphia. The price is fixed at $70,000, the seeds to be delivered, subject to certain strict tests under a very careful by drawn contract, free of cost to the department in Washington, ready for mailing. The contract for putting the seeds up in packets and envelopes will be let by the department separately to L. L. May & Co., of St. Paul, Minn.

CUBANS GARROTTED.

A Sickening Spectacle in the Streets of Havana.

Five Men Put to Death in the Most Bungling and Horrible Manner.

HAVANA, March 31.—Never in modern times has there been a more sickening spectacle than that which today attended the public execution of two Cubans. The men had been condemned to death by the garrote as "marchers, violaters and incendiaries." Troops were drawn up in a hollow square, and in the middle were placed the chair and post. Ruiz, the public executioner, had deputized an assistant to conduct the affair. The condemned men, having received the offices of the church, were brought into the square to meet their fate. One of them had confessed his guilt and affirmed the innocence of all the others, who also protested that they were guiltless.

The first man to die took his seat in the chair calmly; the iron collar was fixed about his neck and the cap drawn over his face. Then the executioner undertook to apply the screw, but was so excited that his hand slipped repeatedly with the result that the victim died by slow strangulation, omitting the most distressing cries. The second execution was accomplished with even more distressing awkwardness and delay, the executioner being almost on the verge of collapse as he performed his horrible function. The protests of the officers and priests forced Ruiz to undertake the third execution, but he did little better than his assistant had done.

The fourth victim of the bungling garrotter was likewise tortured and then Ruiz literally fled from his post, leaving his assistants to put to death the fifth of the unfortunate Cubans, who escaped none of the agonizing experience that had attended the execution of his fellows. The whole affair has left upon the minds of those who witnessed it and upon those to whom it has been described a feeling of the utmost horror.

REED OR M'KINLEY.

Either Good Enough for New Hampshire.

Republicans of That State Adopt a Platform Favoring a High and Protective Tariff Policy.

CONCORD, N. H., March 31.—New Hampshire republicans held their state convention here today and elected delegates to the national convention at St. Louis. United States Senator William E. Chandler presided. Senator Chandler was greeted enthusiastically.

Senator Chandler's speech was given close attention and was frequently interrupted by applause. His mention of Thomas B. Reed as the nation's choice aroused great enthusiasm. Of the 700 entitled to seats in the convention 670 were present. But one ticket for delegates at large was presented and that bore the names of Hon. Stephen S. Jewell, of Lacross; General Frank S. Streeter, of Concord; Hon. Chas. T. Means, of Manchester, and Col. Jas. A. Wood, of Ashworth. These four candidates for delegates at large were elected by acclamation.

The platform favors a protective tariff based on the principles of the McKinley act, and the enactment of currency laws that will provide a circulating medium, in gold, silver and paper, which will always be interchangeable at its face value because of the equality and every dollar of it is of the same purchasing power as a gold dollar. In reference to choice for presidential candidate the platform says: "We recognize as most conspicuous among such candidates, New England's noble and illustrious son, the Hon. Thos. B. Reed, of Maine, and that pure and able statesman and champion of protection, the Hon. Wm. McKinley, of Ohio. We will give the electoral vote of New Hampshire to any nominee who worthily represents the party, but we prefer one of these because either is in himself a platform."

There was a slight stir in the even current of the proceedings when Col. Frank W. Rollins, of Concord, offered a substitute financial plank, identical with that adopted by the Massachusetts convention last week, as an amendment to the resolutions, but Chairman Putney, Senator Gallinger and others opposed the proposition and the amendment was lost by an overwhelming viva voce vote. The adoption of the platform as presented by the committee was made unanimous. Adjournment followed the adoption of the platform.

SETTLED AT LAST.

The New Base Ball League is a Sure Go.

Manager Meyer Receives Assurances That Everything is Ready Now For Going Ahead.

The question of whether or not Fort Wayne is to have base ball this season seems at last to have been settled, and we are to have it. Base ball that will be ball.

As stated in THE SENTINEL yesterday it is to be held in Toledo ten weeks for the purpose of organizing a league to be composed of Fort Wayne, Toledo, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Saginaw, Wheeling, Terre Haute, New Castle and Washington. This morning Manager B. F. Meyer received telegrams from C. S. Power of Kalamazoo, who was president of the Inter State league, which went to pieces, which said:

"There will be a meeting at Hotel Madison, Toledo, tomorrow, Jackson and Saginaw are O. K."

"Tecumseh," said Mr. Meyer, to a SENTINEL reporter this morning, "that every thing is settled. We will go to Toledo tomorrow and stay there until the whole thing is completed and the schedule of games made out."

This league will be one of the strongest minor leagues in the country. All are good base ball towns and they will all put in good teams. This will mean base ball of the very best kind.

GAS EXPLOSION.

Louis Kanning's Face and Head Badly Burned.

Something Got Wrong With His Furnace and He Tried to Investigate.

Louis Kanning was badly burned yesterday by a natural gas explosion at the Kunkle safety valve works, on Barr street.

Kanning was heating a pattern in a gas fire. He left it for a short time and when he returned he found the pattern as cold as when he left it. He opened the door of the furnace to see what was wrong with the fire. As he opened the door there was a puff of fire and the flames struck him full in the face. His face, head and neck were badly scorched. His eyes were not injured.

Daniel Gordon, who was operated upon at St. Joseph hospital, will get well. He is cheerful, suffers no pain and has an excellent appetite.

W. H. Noyes, Lake Shore ticket agent in this city, arrived from Albion, Mich., with his bride yesterday, and they are at home for the present at No. 15 Cass street.

John Becquette has accepted a position with C. M. Lamley, of 34 Harrison street. Mr. Becquette has been employed for a number of years at the well known firm of Falk & Lemley, the wholesale liquor dealers.

The following building permits have been issued by the board of public works: William F. Snyder, two story frame house, lot 47, Hoffman's addition, $600; John Wehrs, addition to house, lot 86, Beck's addition, $500.

The following persons who were here to attend the funeral of the late Martin Schramm have returned to their homes: Frank Schramm, Springfield, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stein, Lima, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Hymes, Chicago.

The county board of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, held an important meeting Sunday afternoon, at which State Treasurer S. J. Hannagan, of Lafayette, and Treasurer John O'Hara, of Peru, were present. The latter gentlemen returned home yesterday.

The ordinance prohibiting the throwing of glass, tin cans and other rubbish in the street is violated with impunity. Broken beer and pop bottles, iron hoops and cans are a source of much annoyance to bicyclists, who must be on the lookout constantly or have their tires punctured.

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Driver, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sunderland, of South Calhoun street, left for Marion to day. Another guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sunderland last night was J. W. Brown, of Columbia City, who is making a canvass in behalf of his candidacy for lieutenant governor.

The evangelistic services now in progress at Heidelberg Reformed church, Harrison street, near Wayne, are deepening in interest. The preaching is pointed, strong and vigorous and the gospel singing spirited. The subject for this evening is "The Wonderful Magnetism of the Gospel."

The attention of the police has been called to the fact that Calhoun street, south of Creighton avenue, is being used almost every afternoon as a race track. Some fellows who have alleged fast horses get out on that street and drive at full speed for a distance of three or four squares. The residents of the street claim it is dangerous and that they are obliged to keep their children in the house while the driving is being indulged in.

Robert L. Freeman, one of the most widely known farmers in the county, died Sunday night very suddenly at his home, near Huntertown. He had been subject to heart disease for some time, but was not considered seriously ill. He was taken suddenly worse on Sunday night, and died before a physician could reach the house. Coroner Hazard was notified yesterday morning, and decided that an inquest was unnecessary. Mr. Freeman was 57 years old, and is survived by a large family.

Dr. Hostetter, made an examination. He found that death resulted from a fatty degeneration of the heart.

FIFTEEN ROUNDS.

Everhardt Lays Leeds Out by a Jolt on the Jaw.

MANCHESTER, N. H., March 31.—Jack Everhardt and Horace Leeds, light weights, fought fifteen rounds last night in the Empire Athletic club. They were scheduled to fight twenty-five rounds, but a "jolt" on the jaw laid Leeds out in the fifteenth round. The vanquished pugilist was unconscious for several hours and it was feared he would not recover. At 11:30 o'clock, however, he regained consciousness and was soon able to get up and dress himself.

TRIANGULAR AFFAIR.

Uncle Sam and John Bull Have a Grievance.

France Has Compelled Them Contrary to Treaties With the United States and Great Britain.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—While it cannot be learned that the United States has yet joined with Great Britain in representations to France respecting the setting aside by the latter of the treaties of commerce and amity that have existed between them and the Hova government of Madagascar, it is believed that the matter is rapidly assuming a phase that will call for some action by our government. With Great Britain the United States has a treaty with the Hova government that guarantees to our citizens privileges equal to those accorded any other nation. This means, by one thing, that no greater duties shall be imposed on goods imported into Madagascar from the United States than from any other country. It is the purpose of the French government to remove this equality and secure special privileges for French merchants, and France has notified our state department that by virtue of this assumption of control over the foreign relations of Madagascar she has created a [illegible]

COUNTY JAIL.

It would not be reasonable to expect that the county jail would be a model institution, but it is certainly a disgrace to the county and to the city of Fort Wayne that it is in the condition that it is. The jail is filthy, unventilated, and in every way unfit for the purpose for which it is used. Prisoners are confined in it who are awaiting trial, and who are presumed to be innocent of the charges against them, and they are compelled to live in the midst of filth and vermin. Many of them are confined for months, and the jail is a disgrace to the county and to the city. It is a disgrace to the humanity of the age. It is a disgrace to the civilization of the age. DRUNKEN HOBOS.

A Gang Get Into a Fight Among Themselves.

Detective Stott and Officer Greer Swoop Down Upon Them and Gather Them In.

Six bums got into an altercation on Baker street at noon to-day and soon were engaged in a bloody fight. They fought and chased each other down the alley to Chicago street and thence into the Pennsylvania company's right of way. About that time Dan Stott, the railway detective, stepped out of the waiting room at the depot and was not slow in taking in the situation. Not being able to secure police assistance, owing to the fact that it was the noon hour and the officers had gone in for dinner, the plucky detective went for the battle ground alone, and after a struggle managed to place two of the toughs under arrest. At this opportune moment Officer Greer arrived on the scene and offered his assistance. Stott turned the two prisoners over to him and then arrested two more of the men. The other two bums took to their heels and escaped, while the four prisoners were loaded into the patrol which had been summoned, and carted down to the lockup.

They were too drunk to give their names at the police station. One of the bums was just released from jail a day or two ago.

CAPTURED ONE MORE.

Mrs. Owen Parish, of Lakeside, reported to the police yesterday that her six young sons had run away from school and she wanted them captured and returned home. Humane Officer Schlundorff started to hunt for the lads and in the afternoon found two of them on their way to the river with fish poles in their hands. He chased them, but the oldest boy eluded him. Franklin, the youngest, who is eight years old, plunged into Spy Run, which is now a stream of considerable size and would no doubt have drowned, had not Park Superintendent Dawell gone in and fished him out. Franklin was then locked up in the police station and kept there for several hours, after which he was released and taken home. He was given a good, sound lecture and promised solemnly that he would go to school every day in the future. The other boys turned up at home at meal time. The next time they play truant they will receive the attention of the law.

FOUND TWO GUNS.

Albert Gresler, a butcher employed at Eckart's establishment, found two revolvers and a cartridge box in the yard of Prof. Gerberding, on the corner of Jefferson and Barr streets, while he was passing the place at 5 o'clock Sunday morning. He notified the police and Officer Elliott went to the place and took charge of the weapons. He also found forty one cartridges on the ground. It is supposed they were thrown there by a pair of burglars who feared being captured with the weapons in their possession.

WHERE IS BUTLER?

He is Said to be Mysteriously Missing.

Left Home Last Wednesday and Has Not Been Heard of Since.

A. Butler, who for a number of years has purchased country produce on the streets, is said to be missing from his usual haunts and the family is sorely distressed over his mysterious absence. He left home in his usual spirits last Wednesday morning, and diligent inquiry has failed to produce any one who has seen or heard of him since. Mr. Butler is about fifty-five years old, five feet ten inches in height and weighed about 180 pounds. He resides on the corner of Edgerton avenue and Winter street, where a wife and three children are now anxiously awaiting his return.

New for a Busy Year.

The coldest and most uncomfortable March we have experienced in years closes its record to-day, but with its close it has brought beautiful weather, and the month which was ushered in like a roaring lion will go out like a gentle lamb, thus verifying the old proverb. The effect of the cool weather during the month upon spring business has been depressing. People do not go out to buy spring goods while compelled to wear the heaviest winter wraps. March has been a spring month only in name, and the profitable spring trade which our merchants hope for is still in the future. There comes an end to all things, and the end of a cold stormy March is at hand.

The net result of the backward spring will be that the spring trade will have to be done in a shorter season than usual. This means that the next two months are to be unusually busy ones. If Fort Wayne's prosperous spring season has been retarded a little by the weather it will be all the more prosperous from now on. The new spring suits for every member of every household will be wanted all the same, even if the winter suits have done duty for an extra month. Houses and rooms must be refurnished to suit summer needs, and every branch of our domestic and business life will draw upon new supplies to take the place of the outworn.

Fort Wayne was never so well prepared to do an unexampled year's business as now, and we trust for the benefit of our merchants, our manufacturers and our people generally that the busy hum of trade and industry will begin and continue through out the year. The only obstacle in sight to a year of great prosperity is the presidential canvass with its uncertainties and its tendency to make business men timid and over cautious. But business men themselves can do much to minimize this retarding influence, if in every branch of trade and industry they will face the future with confidence and thus infuse confidence and activity into the business of the year. The outlook for trade is good, the facilities for doing business were never so complete, the country is growing in population and wealth, and the month of April upon which we are about to enter should be the busiest April this city and the entire country have ever known.

The Reason of It.

THE FORT WAYNE SENTINEL says that Will Ryan is "the saloon candidate" for senator from Allen and Whitley counties, and that Bobilya is "all right." All will remember that during the time the Nicholson bill was pending in the legislature Mr. Bobilya was one of its fiercest antagonists. He fought it at every stage and his vote was recorded against it on final passage. Now THE SENTINEL quotes him as an excellent and loyal supporter of that measure. Funny, ain't it? It would be interesting if THE SENTINEL would explain how it reconciles Mr. Bobilya's record with its present assertions.—Morning Gazette.

Yes, we are always very glad to give the reasons for assertions that we make, and hence we will answer the above editorial in the Gazette. Our authority for speaking of Mr. Ryan as "the saloon candidate" is the latter's own statement made at the Fifth ward polls last Saturday afternoon, in the presence of a SENTINEL representative and others, while the primaries were in progress, and in answer to a voter's question. The reason why we claim Mr. Bobilya is for the Nicholson law is because he told a SENTINEL representative so and said, in an interview which we published in THE SENTINEL, that he would vote against the repeal of the Nicholson law, if he was a member of the next Indiana senate, should that question come up at the session for determination. The past and the present attitude of Mr. Bobilya towards the Nicholson law were fully explained in the interview published in the SENTINEL several days ago. He believes since it has become a law that the Nicholson bill is proving beneficial in its workings and that the majority of the people of the counties of this senatorial district are satisfied to have it continue in force.

HARRISON'S WEDDING.

The General Starts for the Scene of the Nuptials.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 31.—General Harrison, his private secretary, and Dan Ransdell, ex-marshal of the District of Columbia, left this afternoon at 2:45 o'clock for New York, where General Harrison will, next Monday, be married to Mrs. Dimmick. The party will go via Pittsburg over the Pan Handle route. General Harrison is in better health and spirits than he has been since his first campaign. The Harrison party will arrive in New York tomorrow afternoon.

Lem R. Hartman, cashier of the First National bank, returned yesterday from Richmond, where, with Mrs. Hartman, he has been attending the Methodist conference as a lay delegate from the Wayne street church.

If you could look ahead a few months and see what was coming from those spells of weakness, loss of appetite, wasting of flesh and energy you wouldn't wait for disease to get a grip on you. You would begin right away to tone up your constitution with Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It doesn't work miracles; but it does what other medicine can't do and what doctors say can't be done—unless they can't be done right under their noses—I mean consumption. Not always to say that would be an exaggeration, but in a large majority of cases, in advanced cases which have been given up as hopeless.

The "Discovery" is not called a consumption cure; it is a blood-maker. It gives evidence to the blood-making organs to create new blood, full of healthy red corpuscles. This rapid supply of pure, rich, red blood drives out all diseases that have their roots in the blood. Consumption is one of these—scrofula, eczema, erysipelas, catarrh are others. It is absurd to suppose that a parasite is living on skin or blood-diseases. They must be driven out of the blood. You can rely on the Golden Medical Discovery" in this extreme case.

It is not a patent medicine. It is the prescribed result of a wide practice of a physician of large experience and extensive and eminent medical authorities in the profession. Dr. R. V. Pierce, Chief Consulting Physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

LIGHT OUT OF DARKNESS

By Mrs. HENRY WARD BEECHER.

CHAPTER XII.

And now there came frequent tidings of one battle after another, but always followed speedily by telegrams from Rose to assure the anxious home friends that, although the rest in the conflict and the last to leave the field, her brothers thus far had been mercifully preserved unharmed. Dunbar's horse had once been shot under him, but he escaped without injury. His brave men, however, had suffered greatly. More than 50 of George's command had fallen, and 12 more were now in the hospital, watched over by their gallant captain's sister with a tenderness and hearty sympathy that made her like an angel in their midst.

Then came another pause during which the regiments had leisure to fill up their broken ranks, recruit their exhausted strength and restore order again in their camps. But it was only the quiet of the tempest while it gathers force to burst again upon the earth with fury and desolation.

Our friends at the farm had enjoyed one of those quiet, delightful Sabbaths that July sometimes bestows after a severe thunder-storm. Toward evening all were on the veranda watching the shadows falling over the clover fields, while the sun edged the grand old hills with fire as he slowly sank to rest behind the dark mountains that overlooked the placid lake.

Just then a horse's hoofs were heard, and the next moment a horse and rider were seen rapidly approaching the house. It was an uncommon occurrence on the Sabbath, and every face betokened alarm. As the rider halted at the steps Mr. Newton rose and received a dispatch. The boy lingered one moment and then rode quickly away. To how many does the sight of a telegram bring fear and foreboding of evil, even when from business necessities they are of frequent occurrence, and how one not accustomed to receiving them shrinks from the first glance of the contents! Thus stood Mr. Newton, while every eye turned anxiously toward him. His own face was very pale and his hand trembled when at last he opened it. As his eyes took in the message a heavy groan burst from his lips, but he instantly controlled himself as his wife and daughter exclaimed:

"Oh, my boys!" "My husband!"

"Be brave, my dear ones. It is from Rose. A fearful battle at Bull Run. We are shamefully beaten. Eustace slightly wounded, but George and Ralph are missing. Come—come to me quickly!"

Ah, was not this a bitter cup? How will they bear it? The noble father, the tender mother, the loving bride and sister and the dear younger brother! Their faith and trust in God must be strong indeed to carry them safely through these deep waters!

Lillian was the first to speak.

"We must go at once, dear father. Eustace will be well cared for, but Rose needs counsel and support immediately."

A guard was placed over him.

"Yes, my darling. But there is no train that we can reach till early Monday morning."

"My dear wife, you are not well. I dread this rapid and exciting journey for you. Will you not remain at home, leaving Lillian and myself to do what we can for our children, yet keeping you informed by daily telegrams?"

In the early morning Alfred returned. "Good news. I telegraphed to Rose as soon as I reached the city and received this answer not 10 minutes before I was obliged to leave," handing the dispatch to his father.

"George safe with us. Eustace doing well, but Ralph is a prisoner. Let Alfred come with Lillian. Father and mother can do nothing toward Ralph's release."

Great was the joy at this release from part of their fears, but it was with difficulty that the mother could be persuaded to relinquish the idea of going herself. She at last consented on one condition—that her husband should accompany Lillian, leaving Alfred to supply his father's place at home.

Mr. Newton and his daughter reached the camp without any delay, sending back by the magic wires an immediate report of their safe arrival and the comfort their presence gave the anxious children.

At noon the next day came the following:

"Ralph is safely with us. Expect a letter the next mail."

The letter came in due time, as follows:

"Dunbar's wound in the left arm, from a bayonet thrust, was slight, and would not have kept him from his work a day, but at the same time he was knocked from his horse, rescued by his men and carried from the field.

"George and Ralph have been wonderfully preserved. Their regiment was among the most fearless and daring."

In a letter to his wife Mr. Newton thus describes how Ralph appeared in the Union lines:

"Yesterday afternoon as we were seated in Eustace's tent a loud shout from his men outside brought us all upon the grounds. Great excitement was manifested by all, and repeated cheers from the front sounded strangely out of place where all but a moment before had been quiet, moody or despondent. As the men saw the colonel leave his tent they made way for us to pass toward the front, and in the distance we saw that a horseman riding furiously was the occasion of the excitement. The instant Dunbar espied him he exclaimed: 'Look! Surely I cannot be mistaken. That is Prince, but such a uniform who can the rider be?' It was their colonel's well known horse the men had cheered so heartily, but the cross steel unconsciously waiting for a nearer approach to pronounce the rider.

"It was but a moment's suspense before, without checking his bounding speed, he sprang clear of the bridling crowd, threw it from him and raising the cap from his head tossed it high in the air to fall in the midst in a gorge, with a full, joyous 'Hurrah!' which was answered by the men's deafening cheers. We all recognized Ralph Newton, Rose sprang forward to receive Ralph Ralph, my darling!' as he leaped into our midst, and was lifted from the panting horse and clasped in his arms.

"Lillian, my sister, you [illegible] me in sad surprise that I [illegible]

"Ah, no, Rose! But I cannot understand how a love so strong as yours was can be so totally annihilated, even if the object prove, as Grenville has, utterly unworthy."

"Ah, dear sister! If this had been of the common order of sin or worthlessness, there might have lingered some shades of tenderness, but for the son who would trample upon his mother, the traitor who would betray and destroy his country, there can exist no feeling but entire indifference. Yes—a stronger one than that—detestation."

"And what," interrupted Ralph, "do you imagine that Grenville hoped to gain by a disguised entrance into my sister's presence? Why, to persuade her to leave us and allow the first rebel chaplain to marry them and then convey her to his southern home! Or, if she thought that was asking too much, to entrap her promise to be his when the south had subdued us."

"How did you learn this?" asked his father in amazement.

BAD STATE OF AFFAIRS.

Fifteen Hundred Men Out of Employment.

A Disagreement Between Employer and Employe Results in the Closing of the Works.

CORNERS, Ga., March 31.—The closing down of the two great Eagle and Phoenix cotton mills last night for an indefinite period, and the consequent throwing of over 1,500 people out of employment has produced a serious situation here. The strikers are orderly and quiet. Efforts are being made by business men looking to an immediate settlement of the strike.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction, she was brought down with pneumonia, succeeding la grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Dreier & Bro.'s Drug Store. Regular size, 50c and $1.00.

Four Big Successes.

THE DR. J. H. MCLEAN MEDICINE CO.,
St. Louis, Mo.
GENTLEMEN: For about ten years I suffered with a pain in my back which I thought was caused by a strain. Sometimes it got so bad I could not stand upright or ride in my buggy. I read in your almanac of symptoms that I recognized as my own, which led me to the conclusion that my trouble was disease in the kidneys. I immediately began using
DR. J. H. McLEAN'S LIVER AND KIDNEY BALM.
It proved to be the right medicine and reached the spot. I soon lost all pain and have better health than ever before. It is more than a year now since I quit using it and have not had a pain or sick day in all that time. It is certainly a wonderful medicine for the kidneys.
Yours truly,

KIRK'S

Eos (Elixir of Soap.)

Creates a Great Sensation.

The Office of "The Sentinel" Crowded With People Anxious to Obtain a Free Sample of This Marvelous Discovery.

Clerks Kept Busy All Day Handing Out Samples and Answering Questions.

Free Distribution Continued Today From 9 a. m. Until 5 p. m.—This Is Your Last Opportunity to Obtain a Free Sample.

That the people of Fort Wayne and vicinity appreciate the enterprise displayed by The Sentinel was thoroughly proven by the throng that crowded their office yesterday for a free sample of Jas S. Kirk & Co's latest discovery, Eos (Elixir of Soap)

Everywhere people could be heard discussing Kirk's new preparation, which from this time forth means an entire change in doing all laundry work

Think of it! from now on no soap is required to do the family washing when Eos (the Elixir of Soap) is used.

Eos (the Elixir of Soap) is the product and discovery of fifty six years of successful soap making. No discovery in recent years of any preparation for laundry use and general washing has created the sensation and enthusiasm that Eos has.

It may be justly termed the great revolutionizer for all washing purposes, for both the laundry and the toilet

Among the claims made for Eos, which Messrs. James S. Kirk & Co. stand prepared to prove, are the following:

That it will soften the hardest water, it will keep bluing from curdling in the water.

Flannels and woolens washed with this most valuable preparation will positively not shrink, for the bath or toilet it is indispensable, making the water soft and velvety, giving the skin a healthy glow, and removing any superfluous excretion that may adhere to the body.

For dishes and general washing purposes it is very essential as it saves both labor and the soap usually required.

This preparation must not be confounded with the ordinary soap powders, for while no soap is required when Eos is used it contains no lye, ammonia, borax, lime, or any deleterious ingredients. It is essential that all consumers of soap must eventually use it.

It is for the baby's flannels and woolens, it acts as a strong antiseptic for invalid's flannels, woolens and linens

Eos saves 100 per cent of soap, which means that absolutely no soap is required when Eos is used, and also saves 50 per cent of labor

Remember the free distribution of samples ends at

A RELIC OF THE PAST.

Surgical Operations for the Cure of Piles and Rectal Diseases

NO LONGER NECESSARY.

A Medical Discovery Which Will Change the Treatment of All Such Diseases.

It has long been thought not only by sufferers but by leading physicians that the common, painful and severe surgical operations for piles were a relic of the past, to be used only in extreme cases, when all other means had failed to effect a cure. A painless, mild preparation so far introduced that can be reliably depended upon to cure in short order, every form of Itching, Bleeding or protruding piles

Mrs. M. C. Hankins of 601 Steelsville St., Indianapolis, was cured by Pyramid Pile Cure in less than one week. She says that nothing but a surgical operation, resulting between seven and eight hundred dollars could cure her as she had suffered for 15 years, yet was afraid to submit to one as long as Pyramid Pile Cure was recommended to her case. She says "I knew an operation would be death to me and tried the Pyramid with very little hope and it is not to be wondered at that I am so enthusiastic in its praise."

Major Dean of Columbus, Ohio, says he suffered for 45 years from piles and 30 years from itching piles, was cured by one 50c package of the Pyramid and 1 Dollar box of Pile Ointment. Pile Cure is for internal and Pile Ointment for external use. It is now eighteen months since the cure I used it and not the slightest trace of the trouble has returned

The Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by nearly all druggists at 50 cents and $1 per package and at all reputable no agents, as this or other poisonous drug can be used with perfect safety.

No one need suffer from piles in any form who will give this excellent remedy a fair trial. Made by the Pyramid Co., Albion, Mich. Any druggist can get it for you.
